THE CHAIRMAN OF THE BOARD, PRESIDENT AND CHIEF EXECUTIVE OFFICER

AUGUST A. BUSCH, JR.

August A. Busch, Jr., became president of the Cardinals when Anheuser-Busch, Inc. purchased the club in February, 1953.

Mr. Busch is honorary chairman of Anheuser-Busch Companies, Inc. The company has main offices in St. Louis with breweries in St. Louis, Newark, N.J.; Los Angeles, Calif.; Tampa, Fla.; Houston, Texas; Columbus, Ohio; Jacksonville, Fla.; Merrimack, N.H.; Williamsburg, Va.; Fairfield, Calif., and Baldwinsville, N.Y.

Mr. Busch started his career with the company in 1924 as general superintendent. He was elected sixth vice president in 1926, and in 1931, was elected second vice president and a member of the board of directors. He became president in 1946, chairman of the board in April, 1956 and honorary chairman of the board in April, 1977.

He was commissioned a major in the U.S. Army Ordnance Department, in 1942. In July, 1945, he retired from active service with the rank of colonel. For his war-time service, he received several citations and the award of the Legion of Merit.

Mr. Busch served as president of the St. Louis Bicentennial Corporation, formed to give leadership and planning to the celebration of the 200th anniversary of the founding of St. Louis.

He served for 13 years as Chairman of the Board of Civic Progress, Inc., a non-profit organization of civic leaders devoted to revitalization of the St. Louis area, was chairman of St. Louis University's successful $18,000,000 Development Fund Drive; a director of St. Louis Union Trust Company, First National Bank in St. Louis, General American Life Insurance Company and St. Louis Municipal Opera.

Mr. Busch received the Fleur-de-lis award, the highest award given by St. Louis University, in November, 1960; received The Man and Boy Award from the National Boys' Clubs of America in November, 1966; was presented the "Citizen No. 1" award from the Press Club of Metropolitan St. Louis in 1967, and received an Honorary Doctorate of Laws Degree from St. Louis University in 1966.

In 1975, Mr. Busch was elected to the Missouri Sports Hall of Fame. Then St. Louis Mayor, John Poelker, proclaimed Mr. Busch as "Special Ambassador for the City of St. Louis." In addition, Mr. Busch was the recipient of the Levee Stone Award from Downtown St. Louis, Inc., and the Spirit of St. Louis Award from St. Louis University.

Mr. Busch served as chairman of the fund-raising drive for the St. Louis Convention Center and was honored by the Convention and Visitors Bureau for his efforts. In addition, a hall at the new St. Louis Convention Center has been named in his honor.

THE GENERAL MANAGER

JOE McDONALD

On the day Joe McDonald succeeded Whitey Herzog as general manager of the Cardinals, April 10, 1982 – the Cardinals lost. But then they won the next 12 in a row, and went on to have the kind of successful season every major league club looks for – a World Championship and a record home attendance (2,111,906).

Joe's first job with the Cardinals, beginning in October, 1980, was as executive assistant/baseball, handling the administration of the general manager's office under Herzog. Whitey recommended him as his successor in that job when Herzog decided he should concentrate his talents to managing on the field.

Joe came to the Cardinals after 19 years with the New York Mets, including five as vice president and general manager (1975-79). He spent 1980 as vice president-baseball operations.

He began with the Mets in 1962 as club statistician and a year later was moved into the minor league department. With the September, 1964, arrival of Bing Devine as chief lieutentant to GM George Weiss, McDonald advanced steadily in a variety of roles, notably director of scouting and administrative secretary. He played a large role in the implementation of the program dedicated to the development of pitching talent, the cornerstone on which the Mets gained distinction as the first expansion team in history to win the pennant and World Series (1969).

As a youth, he resided in Flatbush and worked at Ebbets Field when he wasn't playing first base on Brooklyn sandlots. He graduated from St. Francis Prep and earned an accounting degree at Fordham in 1951. McDonald served two years in the Air Force (1952-54) before moving into the business world – first with General Dynamics and then as aide to Fred Corcoran, prominent sports figure who represented pro golfers and such notables as Ted Williams, Stan Musial and Sam Snead.

Joe is married to the former Virginia Bullock of Greenville, S.C. He has two sons, Jody and Timmy, and one daughter, Marni.

VICE PRESIDENT-BUSINESS OPERATIONS

GARY BLASE

Gary Blase, who came to the Cardinals in 1977 as director of operations and controller, has been elevated to the new post of vice president-business operations. In that position, he is responsible for all financial and internal business affairs of the Cardinals.

Blase, a 37-year-old University of Missouri-Columbia graduate in business administration, is a certified public accountant. He was previously affiliated with General Dynamics Corporation and the accounting firm of Haskins and Sells.

He lives in North St. Louis County with his wife, Leah, and two sons.

THE MANAGER

DORREL NORMAN (WHITEY) HERZOG (24)

That the 1982 Cardinals brought home St. Louis' first World Championship since 1967 is due largely to Whitey Herzog. Herzog became the Cardinals' manager June 9, 1980, succeeding Ken Boyer and inheriting a last place team with a 19-34 record. He managed until August 29, posting a 38-35 record, and then moved up to the job of general manager. Following the season, on October 24, 1980, Herzog again became field manager while retaining the G-M's hat too. After greatly transforming the Cardinals with two winters of off-season trades, the putting together a team he thought could win, Herzog turned over the general manager's title to Joe McDonald on April 10, 1982. The rest is in the record books. His 1982 performance earned him recognition as The Sporting News "Man of the Year" and "Manager of the Year" and also as United International's "Executive of the Year", an award he also was given in 1981.

On the field, Whitey is one of the most respected and successful managers in the game. In four and a half seasons with the Kansas City Royals, he won three American League Western Division championships and finished second twice. His total managerial record in the major leagues, including a season with the Texas Rangers (finished sixth), four games as interim manager of the California Angels and his past season with the Cardinals is 648 won and 545 lost. He was named "Manager of the Year" in 1976 by UPI and Baseball Bulletin. Herzog's other experience includes scouting for Kansas City in 1964 and coaching the Athletics in 1965. He was also a coach with the Mets in 1966 and the California Angels in 1974 and 1975. He was director of player development for the Mets from 1967 through 1972.

He logged 8 years in the majors as a player, including stints with Washington, Kansas City, Baltimore and Detroit as an outfielder-first baseman...His last year as a player was 1963 with the Tigers...Whitey was originally signed by the New York Yankees immediately following his graduation from New Athens High School.

Whitey, 5-11, 195, born November 9, 1931 in New Athens, Ill., and wife Mary Lou have 3 children: Debra (1-31-55), who is married and lives in Blue Springs, Mo.; David (9-8-57) and Jim (8-11-61)...The Herzogs have made their home in Independence, Mo., a suburb of Kansas City, since 1958...A popular and well-known personality in baseball, Whitey is recognized for his never-ending enthusiasm, frankness and honesty...He was nicknamed Whitey by Bill Speith, McAlester sportscaster, because of his light hair.

THE COACHES

CHUCK HILLER (4)

Chuck Hiller, 47, who coaches at third base, came to the Cardinals from the New York Mets' organization for whom he managed at Kingsport, Tenn., of the Appalachian League in 1980. For four seasons prior to that, however, he was a coach under Herzog for the Kansas City Royals. He also coached for the Texas Rangers in 1973, and was a minor league manager for six seasons, following his active playing career.

As an infielder, mainly at second base, the native of Johnsburg, Illinois, played all or part of eight seasons in the major leagues, with San Francisco, New York, Philadelphia and Pittsburgh. He gained a distinction in the 1962 World Series with the San Francisco Giants, when he became the first National League player to hit a bases-loaded home run. He had a career big league batting average of .243.

HUB KITTLE (9)

Hub Kittle, the Cardinals' pitching coach, was a newcomer to St. Louis when he arrived in 1981. However, at 65, Hub is hardly new to baseball, and owns a distinction of having pitched professionally in six decades when he hurled an inning for the Springfield, Illinois, Redbirds late in the 1980 season.

Hub was a pitching instructor in the Cardinals' minor league organization from 1978 to 1980, as well as in 1976. In 1977, he managed the St. Petersburg club to an 85-55 record.

Kittle makes his home in Yakima, Washington, and is the father of seven children (four sons and three daughters). He started pitching professionally in 1936, but never reached the major leagues. He became a minor league manager in 1948, the first of 19 seasons he would pilot farm system clubs. From 1960 to 1963 he served as General Manager at Yakima, Wash., Honolulu and Portland, Ore. He was named Minor League Executive of the Year by The Sporting News while at Yakima in 1960. He joined the Houston organization as a minor league manager in 1968 and served on the Astro coaching staff from 1971-1975.

HAL LANIER (8)

Hal Lanier, 40, got his first opportunity in the major leagues as a coach with the 1981 Cardinals after compiling an outstanding record as a minor league manager in the Cardinal organization over a five year period.

He had been at Springfield, Illinois for two seasons prior to coming to St. Louis, finishing second in 1979 and winning the American Association Championship in 1980.

In his first year as a manager, he finished third with St. Petersburg in the Florida State League, and in 1977 won the Carolina League championship at Gastonia and was elected "Manager of the Year." Back in St. Pete in 1978, his team was first-half champion and finished second in the second half. He was chosen 1980's Minor League Manager of the Year by The Sporting News.

Lanier, a former major league infielder with the San Francisco Giants and the New York Yankees, is the son of former Cardinal pitcher Max Lanier. He was born in Denton, North Carolina, but grew up in St. Petersburg. Lanier signed a bonus contract with the Giants in 1961 and reached the majors in 1964 in time to drive in a run that beat the Cardinals in a game at old Busch Stadium (it was also his first major league at-bat). He came up as a second baseman, but was the regular shortstop for the Giants until 1971 when he was displaced by Chris Speier. Hal led National League shortstops in fielding percentage in 1968. He wound up his major league career with the Yankees in 1973 and was signed by Cardinals as a free agent in April of 1974 and assigned to Tulsa where he hit .269 in 103 games. He was a player-coach for the Tulsa Oilers in 1975.

DAVID (DAVE) WILLIAM RICKETTS (3)

Former Cardinal player and coach returned to major league club as a coach in 1978 after serving as a Cardinal farm system manager for two seasons... Led Sarasota to third place finish in 1976 and managed Johnson City to third place in '77.

Ricketts was born in Pottstown, Pa., but now makes his home in Rochester, New York, where he teaches and coaches basketball at John Fisher College in the off-season... Received his Bachelor of Arts degree from Duquesne University in Pittsburgh where he starred in basketball with his brother Dick, a former Cardinal pitcher...Signed with the Cardinals as a catcher in 1957...Spent all of the 1967-68-69 seasons with the Red Birds as a back-up catcher and pinch-hitter and appeared in both the 1967 and 1968 World Series ...Last season as a player was with Pittsburgh in 1970...Served the Pirates as bull-pen coach from 1971 through 1973 and then took the same job with the Cardinals in 1974.

ALBERT FRED SCHOENDIENST (2)

"Red" returned again to the Redbird coaching ranks in 1979. He coached in St. Louis from 1961 to 1964 under manager Johnny Keane. He then began a 12-year stint as Cardinal manager, the longest anyone has occupied the position. As manager, he led the Cardinals to National League pennants in 1967 and 1968, and the World Championship in 1967. He also served as interim manager of the Redbirds for the last part of the 1980 season when Whitey Herzog moved from the field to occupy the general manager's position for the Cardinals. "Red" also spent two seasons coaching at Oakland in 1977 and 1978.

Schoendienst was a Cardinal player for 14 years, an outstanding second baseman and hitter. He played in the 1946 World Series for the Cardinals and in 1957 and 1958 for Milwaukee. He was chosen to ten National League All-Star game squads and played in nine of the games.

As a player he appeared in 2,216 games and has 2,449 hits, and a lifetime batting average of .289.

"Red" was born on February 2, 1923, at Germantown, Illinois, and is married to the former Mary Eileen O'Reilly. They have four children – Colleen, Cathleen, Eileen and Kevin.

THE PLAYERS

JOAQUIN ANDUJAR (47)

Pitcher Ht: 6-0 Wt: 180
Bats: Both Throws: Right
Age: 30 (Turns 31 on December 21) Born: 12-21-52 at San Pedro de Marcoris, D.R.

Became Cardinal – June 6, 1981 acquired in trade with Houston Astros for outfielder Tony Scott.

M.L. Service – 7.00.

1982 – Joaquin Andujar emerged from the bullpen where he had been a spot starter and long reliever for the last several years, to become one of the Cardinals' most effective front liners. He tied Bob Forsch for the team lead in wins with 15, and led the team in ERA, games started, complete games, innings pitched, and strikeouts and gave up the fewest walks of any starter. On a league level, Andujar finished the season third in ERA, second in shutouts, fifth in won-loss, fifth in innings pitched, and seventh in complete games. In 1982 Andujar started more games and pitched more innings than he ever had in his career, taking the mound with three days rest through much of the season...Was the Cards' hard luck pitcher at the beginning of the year with seven of his ten losses coming in games in which St. Louis scored two or fewer runs...Andujar thrived down the pennant stretch. Between August 12 and September 24 he won 7 of his 10 starts (with the Cards also getting the win in the three games in which he did not get the decision) and recorded 29-2/3 consecutive scoreless innings...Was the winning pitcher in one playoff and two World Series games. Won the third game of the NLCS, 6-2, over Atlanta, to give the Cards the National League Championship. Got the winning verdict in game 3 of the World Series, another 6-2 Cardinal win, but was hit on the knee by a Ted Simmons line drive in the seventh inning and had to be carried off the field. Andujar was able to return for the seventh game, however, and led the Cardinals to a 6-3 victory and the World Championship...Including post-season play he was 17-1 in games in which the Cardinals scored the first run...Continued his mastery over the Expos by stretching his career mark to 11-1 against them.

Career Highlights – Arrived in St. Louis shortly before the 1981 strike so Cardinal fans had to wait over two months to see him in action. He was then used as a spot starter and long reliever and was particularly valuable against the Expos against whom he was undefeated in three starts...He pulled a hamstring in late September and missed some turns...Opted for free agency after the 1981 season and was selected by 11 other clubs but chose to return to the Cardinals...1980 started off slowly for Andujar. Was 0-4 for the season and had a record of 0-8 stretching back to August of 1979 before he defeated the Expos as a starter on 7/19. Finished the season at 3-8 with 2 saves. However, he put together a string of 21 consecutive scoreless innings pitched, spanning four starts and one relief appearance from August 10 through September 3. Was 1-0 with a 1.20 ERA in 30.1 in August while helping fill the void in Houston's rotation when J.R. Richard suffered his collapse...He made his first major league start, 4/16/76 vs. San Diego...In 1978 he was hampered by recurring abdominal and hamstring muscle pulls.

National Awards – Was named The National League's Pitcher of the Month for September of 1982...Selected National League Player of the Week, 6/6/76...Has been on The National All-Star Team twice; making the club but not pitching due to injury in 1977 and hurling two innings in the 1979 game.

Misc. – Graduated from Jose Perez High School, San Pedro de Marcoris, D.R., where he played baseball, basketball and volleyball...Was reunited in St. Louis with Cardinal pitching coach Hub Kittle. Andujar pitched for Kittle for five years in the Dominican Republic.

CHARLES DOUGLAS BAIR (40)

Pitcher Ht: 6-0 Wt: 180
Bats: Right Throws: Right
Age: 33 (Turns 34 on August 22) Born: 8-22-49 at Defiance, Ohio

Became Cardinal – September 10, 1981 from Cincinnati in exchange for pitcher Joe Edelen and infielder Neil Fiala.

M.L. Service – 5.159.

1982 – Called on both in long and short relief, Bair had the job of getting the Cardinals into "Sutter Territory" (the eighth and ninth innings) in good shape. Under those circumstances, he didn't get credit for a win or save in many appearances but his low ERA was responsible for preserving many a Cardinal win. His 1982 ERA stands as his lowest in the major leagues since he posted a 1.98 mark with Cincinnati in 1978 in his best season as pro. He recorded the lowest ERA of any regular reliever for the Cards in 1982...Bair appeared in more games than any other pitcher, except for Sutter...Was particularly valuable after Sutter strained a groin muscle on July 5 in Cincinnati and was shelved for a while. Bair picked up 3 saves in four appearances in that stretch, allowing only 4 hits and 1 run in six innings pitched with a 1.50 ERA. The highlight of this season was a 3-1/3 inning scoreless stint against San Diego in the second half of a doubleheader in which Bair struck out seven batsmen. Doug has not started a game since 1975.

Career Highlights – Bair reported to the Cardinals on September 11, 1981 and was a winning pitcher the next day when he beat New York in an extra-inning 4-2 St. Louis win. He also was a winner in his last 1981 appearance, with a two-inning performance against Philadelphia, 3-2. His only save was a four-inning job in an important home game against Montreal on September 29...The opposition scored in only three of the 11 appearances he made for the Cardinals. He hit the first home-run of his major league career on 5/29...Between 1977 and 1981, Bair was one of the most durable pitchers in the National League, appearing in 242 games, all in relief. He has not started a game since he discovered the bullpen in 1976. He played a large part in Cincinnati's Western Division championship in 1979 with an 11-7 won-lost record and 16 saves. His best total for saves was in 1978 with 28.

Misc. – Bair is a graduate of Bowling Green State University. He is married to the former Connie Taylor. Doug and Connie became parents for the first time on October 8, 1982 when Heather Bair was born.

GEORGE ANTON BJORKMAN (16)

Pitcher Ht: 6-2 Wt: 190
Bats: Right Throws: Right
Age: 26 (Turns 27 on August 26) Born: 8-26-56 at Ontario, California

Became Cardinal – Was fourth selection in the regular phase of the June, 1978, free agent draft.

M.L. Service – 0.000.

1982 – Statistically speaking, 1982 was a disappointing year for Bjorkman. Coming off a very good 1981 showing, his offensive output dropped at Louisville especially in the long ball department. Expectations are that his 1983 performance will be on par with his numbers from 1981...Bjorkman is considered a solid defensive catcher with a good arm...He led the American Association in double plays by catchers with 10.

Career Highlights – Bjorkman hit 28 home runs in 1981 with Springfield, enough to give him the American Association's lead in that category and earn him selection on the 1981 league All-Star Team. In 1977 he batted .307 with 14 doubles, 10 home runs and 44 RBI in 48 games for the Oral Roberts University varsity baseball team. He hit .318 in 1978 with 21 homers and 63 RBI in 57 games in helping lead his school to the NCAA Division I Midwest Regional Championship and a berth in the NCAA College World Series. He batted .455 in the Series and was named catcher on the NCAA Division I College All-American third team. Played semi-pro ball for Coors of Kansas (El Dorado, Kansas) in 1977.

Misc. – Graduated from Chaffey (Ontario, California) H.S. in 1974, and played baseball and basketball there. Attended Chaffey College at Alta Loma, California before going to Oral Roberts...He was selected by the San Franscisco Giants from the Cardinals' Springfield Club in the December 8, 1980 professional draft...His contract was returned to the Cardinals on April 7, 1981. He played winter ball with the Bayamon club in Puerto Rico this off-season...Married the former Carol Archambault on 1/16/82.

JOSE BRITO (30)

Pitcher Ht: 6-2 Wt: 160
Bats: Right Throws: Right
Age: 23 Born: 10-28-59 at Salcedo, Dominican Republic

Became Cardinal – April 1, 1982 along with pitcher Jeff Lahti in a trade with Cincinnati for Bob Shirley.

M.L. Service – 0.000.

1982 – Brito showed a deceptively good fastball in 1982. Slight of build, he left batters wondering where his power came from, yet he maintained his career average of striking out over seven batters per nine innings pitched...Brito began the year as a starter but subsequently performed mostly as a reliever for the first time in his career. Still he registered more strikeouts than anyone else on the pitching staff of the AAA Louisville Redbirds...Cardinal brass feel Brito will be most successful as a short reliever.

Career Highlights – Had a losing record in 1981 for the first time in his career but still struck out 91 in 114 innings pitched at Indianapolis...Was the top winner in the Cincinnati farm system in 1980 with 12 wins at Waterbury...Recorded the lowest ERA, 2.43 of his pro career in 1979 at Tampa.

GLENN EDWARD BRUMMER (11)

Catcher Ht: 6-0 Wt: 200
Bats: Right Throws: Right
Age: 28 (Turns 29 on November 23) Born: 11-23-54 at Olney, Illinois

Became Cardinal – Signed as a free agent by Cardinal scouts Fred McAlister and Jim Belz on May 20, 1974.

M.L. Service – 1.122.

1982 – Glenn Brummer will always be remembered by Cardinal fans for his play on August 22...In the 12th inning of a home game against San Francisco, he made his way to third base after a pinch-hit single. From there, with 2 outs and the count 2-2, the catcher stole home to give him his second big league stolen base and give St. Louis a frantic 3-2 victory...Brummer displayed enthusiasm like that all year long. He started the year with the big league club but was optioned down when Ken Oberkfell came off the disabled list. Called on to be the starting receiver in May when Gene Tenace and Darrell Porter were on the disabled list, he proceeded to hit .263 after averaging .244 in three years at the triple A level. During that period he personified the type of play that made the Cardinals successful. In a home game against the Dodgers on June 4 he stole third (the first stolen base of his major league career), then scored a crucial run on a squeeze play. Two nights later against the same team, he beat out a bunt, then slid hard into second base to force a bad throw that allowed the Cards to score twice on what could have been a double play. From that point on Brummer became one of the club's pinch-runners.

Career Highlights – In 1981 Brummer was brought up to the big club on May 24 after Darrell Porter was placed on the disabled list and helped fill the gap...Known for his strong and accurate arm...Got his first major league hit on May 29 against the Phillies...Wasn't sure how long he'd be at St. Louis so he maintained his home in Springfield, Illinois, and made the 2 hour trek before and after each game...He suffered a knee injury described by doctors as one of the most extensive they have ever seen in a game at Springfield, Ill. against Wichita on July 16, 1979. He underwent surgery, was out the rest of that season, but made a remarkable comeback in time to play in 110 games at Springfield in 1980. He can be classified as a "late bloomer", having spent seven years in the minor leagues following his signing out of Lakeland Junior College of Mattoon, Ill., where he was a junior college all-state player and most valuable on his team. He also was an MVP and all-star with the Fairfield, Il., American Legion team. He was a 1971 graduate of Effingham, Ill., high school.

Misc. – He and his wife Shelly (Welsh) have two children; Jason Edward (12-8-80) and Tiffany Brea (11-24-82).

RALPH A. CITARELLA (43)

Pitcher Ht: 6-0 Wt; 180
Bats: Right Throws: Right
Age: 25 (Turns 26 on February 7) Born: 2-7-58 at East Orange, New Jersey

Became Cardinal – Cardinals' first selection in the secondary phase of the June, 1979, free agent draft.

M.L. Service – 0.000.

1982 – Citarella led the American Association in games won in his first full year at the AAA level despite posting a relatively high ERA...Considered a hard thrower with a good curve, his biggest problem is a lack of experience. 1982 was only the fourth year in pro ball for Citarella.

Career Highlights – Began the 1981 season at the AA level in Arkansas but showed much improvement and was called up to Springfield late in the season...Led 1980 South Atlantic League pitchers in ERA (1.64) and games (51). Selected on 1980 South Atlantic League All-Star Team. Chosen as Topps Chewing Gum Co., South Atlantic League Player of the month for August 1980...Was previously drafted by Minnesota (1978) and Cincinnati (1978).

Misc. – Graduated from St. Thomas Aquinas High School, Edison, N.J. in 1976. Lettered in baseball, football and basketball. Attended Florida Southern University and Brevard (Fla.) Community College 1967-79. Pitched in the Dominican Republic this off-season for the Escogido team.

TERRY CLARK (52)

Pitcher Ht: 6-2 Wt: 180
Bats: Right Throws: Right
Age: 22 Born: 10-18-60 at Los Angeles, California

Became Cardinal – Selected 22nd by the Cardinals in the June, 1979, free agent draft. Signed by scout Angel Figueroa.

M.L. Service – 0.000.

1982 – Clark appeared in (58) and finished (51) more games than any other pitcher in the Florida State leage in 1982. He also recorded 19 saves, the most in the league. The hard-throwing reliever is noted for his good breaking ball, a pitch he has been able to consistently keep down in his career. Clark is a control pitcher.

Career Highlights – Led 1981 South Atlantic League pitchers in games (53) and games finished (51) and was selected in saves (13). Selected on 1981 South Atlantic League All-Star team...Led 1979 Appalachian League pitchers in saves (8) and tied for the lead in games (23)...Attended Mt. San Antonio Junior College, 1978-79... Played baseball and pitched a no-hitter vs. University of California, Riverside.

Misc. – Graduated from LaPuente (Ca.) High School in 1978. Lettered in baseball and was selected All-League first team 4A division.

ROBERT (BOB) HERBERT FORSCH (31)

Pitcher Ht: 6-3 Wt: 215
Bats: Right Throws: Right
Age: 33 Born: 1-13-50 at Sacramento, California

Became Cardinal – Selected 38th in the June, 1968, free agent draft signed by scout Bill Sayles.

M.L. Service – 8.099.

1982 – Forsch is recognized as one of the most consistent pitchers the Cards have had in years, and 1982 was no exception. He tied Joaquin Andujar for the team lead in wins with 15. His victory total exceeded his output for each of the past four years and placed this year second only to his 20-game year in 1977. Forsch continued to rely on his placement and control rather than power, striking out fewer batters than most of the Cardinal relievers did...Reached the 100-victory plateau on June 4 in a complete game, 5-2 win over the Dodgers at home...Had an 11-2 record at home...Led Cardinal pitchers in batting average and sacrifice hits...In a strange turn of events on May 15 in Atlanta, Forsch recorded the first save of his career when he became the eighth Cardinal pitcher to appear in the game and he preserved a 7-6 victory for Bruce Sutter. Forsch pitched his best game of the season on October 7 when he shut out the Braves in the opening game of the National League Championship series. He struck out six and gave up only 3 hits in the 7-0 Cardinal win. It was only the third shutout in LCS history.

Career Highlights – Ironically, he was the starting pitcher on both "opening days" of the 1981 season for the Cards; losing the first 'opener' to Philadelphia on April 11 and winning the second-half 'opener' against the same team on August 10...Experienced some tenderness in his shoulder early in the season that limited the length of his appearances in several starts but regained his form during the second half and pitched a complete game Sept. 1...His fielding percentages was a perfect 1.000 in 34 chances. Finished 1980 with 11 wins (for the third straight season) and lost fewer games than either of his previous two seasons. Missed starts because of physical problems including a spiked heel, blisters and a tender shoulder and also because of personal problems....Recorded an 11-11 mark in 1979 but had an outstanding second half of the season, winning 7 of his last 8 decisions and allowing only 1 home run in his last 61.2 innings....1978 was a bad year for Bob as he lost nine in a row at one stretch, even though he started the season with a bang by throwing a 5-0 no-hit game vs Philadelphia on April 16 at home....His best season as a Cardinal was 1977 where he fought off leg and back injuries to become the Cardinals' first 20-game winner since 1971 and first righthander to win 20 since 1970. Won five straight games during one stretch and had a 1.70 ERA during the streak....Experienced weird 1976 campaign. Had no decisions in his first five starts, and just one in his first ten....Was the top Cardinal starter in winning percentage and ERA in 1975...In 1974, he won 7 of 11 decisions. Was called up in Sept. 1973, but did not appear in any games.

Awards – Named to the Sporting News National League Silver Bat team for the 1980 season...Member of the National League All-Star team which toured Japan in November of 1979.

Misc. – He and his brother Ken (Angels) are first brother combination in baseball history to pitch no-hitters....In his first year in pro ball (1968) he was a Gulf Coast League All-Star third baseman for Sarasota. He turned to pitching with a mound appearance at Cedar Rapids in 1970. He recorded an 11-7 record and 3.13 ERA in 1971, his first full year on the mound....He graduated from Hiram W. Johnson High School in Sacramento where he played two years of varsity basketball and was named MVP his senior year. In baseball he was All-City as well as MVP that year. He attended Sacramento City College...He and his wife, Mollie (Kneen) have two daughters, Amy Lynn, born in January of 1976 and Kristin Rae, born in November of 1978...The highlight of his career, according to Forsch, was the first time he wore a major league uniform on Sept. 2, 1973 in New York's Shea Stadium.

JOHN T. FULGHAM (41)

Pitcher Ht: 6-2 Wt: 195
Bats: Right Throws: Right
Age: 26 (Turns 27 on June 9) Born: 6-9-56 at St. Louis, Missouri

Became Cardinal – In June, 1976. Selected first by the Cardinals in the secondary phase of the June, 1976, free agent draft.

M.L. Service – 2.105.

1982 – Began the year at Extended Spring Training. Remained in St. Petersburg for the start of the Cardinal affiliate's season in order to avoid early spring cold weather that might have put a strain on the recuperation of Fulgham's shoulder... Recorded some impressive numbers in St. Pete, considering it had been little more than a year since he underwent surgery on his rotator cuff. Posted a 2.45 ERA and a 4-2 record with 3 complete games in 8 outings before he was moved up to the AAA club in Louisville...Was 4-3 with the Redbirds in 10 appearances...Had trouble with consistency; made some very good showings and also had some rocky outings to finish his stay with a 7.01 ERA.

Career Highlights – Reported to 1981 spring training after deciding the off-season to rest his problem arm rather than undergo surgery on his rotator cuff. However, he soon found he couldn't throw without pain and opted for the surgery in March. Was placed on the 60-day emergency disabled list (where he stayed for the remainder of the season) on March 16. Rested and recuperated for most of the season. Reporting to the Cardinals' winter Instructional League team in St. Petersburg, he gave up 0 earned runs, had a 1-1 record in 17 innings...His 1980 season was plagued by arm problems. He didn't pitch from April 26 to May 17 and again from June 8 to July 30. He did, however, win four games and continued his streak of having pitched complete games in all of his major league victories (14)...He was one of the main reasons for the Cardinals' success in 1979. He made his major league debut June 19, four days after being recalled from Springfield, and tossed a complete game 7-2 victory over San Diego ending a 13-game St. Louis losing streak in the Padres' stadium. The St. Louisan finished with a 10-6 record and had the lowest ERA among Cardinals' starters. His 2.53 ERA could have won the league ERA title, but fell 16 innings short of the required amount. He registered 4 consecutive complete game victories with a 0.25 ERA during the streak. Had an excellent strikeout (75) to walks (26) ratio. Of his 10 wins in 1979 2 were shutouts and in 2 others the only run off John was unearned.

Misc. – Graduated from Pattonville High School in St. Louis in 1974....Attended University of Miami, Coral Gables, Florida, 1974-75....Attended Yavapai J.C., Prescott, Arizona, 1975-76....Majored in physical education, radio and T.V. broadcasting.... Was an All-American selection while at Miami University....He and his wife Marianne had a daughter, Stacey, in July, 1981.

Shortstop Ht: 5-10 Wt: 175
Bats: Both Throws: Right
Age: 23 Born: 1-21-60 at San Cristobel, Dominican Republic

Became Cardinal – Signed by the Cardinals' St. Petersburg club as a non-drafted free agent on August 18, 1980.

M.L. Service – 0.000.

1982 – Once again, Gonzalez showed exceptionally good defense for someone who is so new to baseball. Began his second year in the pros with Arkansas and led the Texas League in double plays turned by shortstops. The switch-hitter was called up to Louisville late in the season where he looked comfortable at the plate, batting .357 (10-28), and confident in the field.

Career Highlights – 1981 was Gonzalez's first year in pro baseball. He displayed solid defense and held his own at the plate...Was orginally signed by the Yankees' organization in 1978 but was released on completion of spring training that year before playing for them.

Misc. – Played winter ball with the Licey team in the Dominican Republic...His hobby is playing dominoes.

Age: 22 Born: 12-4-60 at Managua, Nicaragua

Became Cardinal – December 12, 1980. Acquired from the Milwaukee Brewers along with the pitchers Dave LaPoint and Lary Sorensen and outfielder Sixto Lezcano, in exchange for catcher Ted Simmons and pitchers Rollie Fingers and Pete Vuckovich.

M.L. Service – 0.163.

1982 – After struggling with major league pitching when he was called up in September of 1981 and batted only .147, Green burst onto the scene in 1982 to prove that all the talk about his outstanding baseball talent was not just hype. Initial plans called for him to be a reserve outfielder, with Dane Iorg, Lonnie Smith and George Hendrick getting the starting jobs. But his play earned him a starting spot in center field, at least on a semi-regular basis. He was batting .316 over the first 28 games of the year when on May 8 he pulled his right hamstring and was placed on the 15-day disabled list. When he returned the accomplishments of replacement Willie McGee left Green without much playing time so he was optioned to Louisville on June 14 to afford him the chance to play every day. He tore up AAA pitching, batting .345 with 10 home runs and 38 RBI prior to being recalled again on August 5. He continued where he left off by maintaining his average at the .300 level...Green hit his first major league home run on August 15 vs. Pittsburgh...He filled in at all outfield positions during the year.

Career Highlights – In 1981, he joined the club on September 2 from Springfield and showed flashes of great potential. His long legs gave him incredible speed, both on the base paths and in the open spaces of Busch Stadium. He showed the strength of his throwing arm, but struggled at the plate (going 0-15 before getting his first major league hit on 9/26) and displayed a lack of experience in judging the balls' flight from the bat. At Springfield, Green got off to a slow start but turned in stronger performances toward the end of the season. He was hampered on and off with a slight hamstring pull while at Springfield. Started playing baseball in 1975 after running track as a youngster. He signed his first contract in 1978 and was sent by the Brewers to Arizona to learn English and play baseball with Kenny Richardson who managed Milwaukee's rookie team. His first year in pro ball was 1979 when he played for Stockton in the Class A California League and batted .262. He improved the next year, hitting .291 with 19 triples and 27 stolen bases for Holyoke, Mass. in the Class AA Eastern League. He was working on his hitting in the Mexican Winter League when he was traded to the Cardinals.

Misc. – Played winter ball with the Ponce club in Puerto Rico in 1982-83.

GEORGE HENDRICK (25)

Outfielder Ht: 6-3 Wt: 195
Age: 33 (Turns 34 on October 18) Born: 10-18-49 at Los Angeles, California

Became Cardinal – Obtained the contract from the San Diego Padres on May 25, 1978, in exchange for the contract of pitcher Eric Rasmussen. Originally was Oakland's first selection in the January, 1978 free agent draft.

M.L. Service – 11,074.

1982 – "Silent" George continued to let his bat speak for him. As in prior years, he led the 1982 Cardinals in RBI, home runs and slugging percentage. He also led the team and the league in sacrifice flies. Hendrick finished second to Hernandez in game winning RBI and was fourth in the league in home runs...Defensively, he patrolled the right field area with authority and confidence...He opened the season with a scare as an unexplainable inflamed right elbow that occurred during spring training handicapped his throw and often kept him out of starting lineup. That ailment overcome, he was slowed by pulled muscles in his right leg at the end of May and sat out five straight games...Had a great month of July as he batted .318 and collected 25 RBI...Got that month off to a good start when on June 29 he went 2-4 vs. Philadelphia including a grand-slam home run, a run-scoring double and a sacrifice fly that gave him 7 RBI for the day...Reached the 200-career home run level this year, and had his second career 100 RBI season.

Career Highlights – In 1981, he led the Cardinals in slugging percentage, home runs, runs-batted-in, game-winning-RBI and runs. He was also second on the team in at-bats, hits, doubles and walks...On the league level, he was 5th in home runs, 5th in slugging percentage, 6th in game-winning-RBI, 9th in RBI and 4th in runs...He started off the season in right field but was moved to center field to fill the void left by the trade of Tony Soctt...Hit his first inside-the-park homerun as a Cardinal on June 11 to highlight his season. Enjoyed his finest season in 1980 when he ranked second in the National League in RBI with 109 (career high), 9th in homers with 25 and 10th in batting .302. He led the club in HR and RBI, and was second on the team in extra base hits (60). He was selected to the National League All-Star Team for the first time in his career and named on several All-Star Teams...He helped solidify the Cardinals' outfield in 1979 when he suggested he move from center field to right field, changing places with Tony Scott. The April 24th move led to a league leading 20 assists for an outfielder for Hendrick that season. His 2 errors were the fewest among Cardinal regulars...The highlight of his 1978 season with the Cardinals was his 7 RBI vs Atlanta, the most by any N.L. player in a 9-inning game.

Hendrick started out in the Oakland organization and was with the A's on their 1972 World Series Championship club. He was traded to Cleveland in 1973, the first year he really came into his own. He smacked three home runs against Detroit on June 19, 1973 but missed the final six weeks of that season with a broken wrist when hit by a pitch in Kansas City on August 14...he broke into pro ball by leading the Midwest League in hitting .327 at Burlington.

Awards – Member of 1974 and 1975 American League All-Star Team. Member of 1980 National League All-Star Team. Selected on The Sporting News National League Silver Bat Team in 1980. Named to UPI, The Sporting News and Broadcasters Elections Committee National League post-season All-Star Team in 1980.

KEITH HERNANDEZ (37)

First Baseman Ht: 6-0 Wt: 195
Bats: Left Throws: Left
Age: 29 Born: 10-20-53 at San Francisco, California

Became Cardinal – Selected 40th by the Cardinals in the June, 1971, free agent draft. Signed by scout Bill Sayles.

M.L. Service – 7.125.

1982 – Hernandez batted .299, falling short of batting .300 for the first time in four years. Following a fast start, he was below .300 from May 29 until September 7 when he went above the barrier again. Over a 20-day period in late August he batted .412 but then cooled off and just missed the mark. Still, he led the team in GW-RBI, games played and walks and was second in batting average, slugging percentage, hits, doubles, triples and RBI...On the league level, he was second in GW-RBI, third in on-base percentage, third in walks and ninth in batting average... He notched the 1,000th hit of his career and collected his 500th career RBI this season...Won his fifth consecutive Gold-Glove Award...Went hitless in the first four games of the World Series, then went on a tear and batted .583 (7-12), with a team leading 8 RBI, in the last three games.

Career Highlights – In 1981, he led the team in batting average, hits, doubles, walks and tied Hendrick for honors in the game-winning-RBI category. He was also second on the team in slugging percentage, runs, home runs, and RBI. Hernandez played in each of the Cardinals 103 games, appearing in four games as a pinch-hitter (after he sprained his ankle and strained a muscle in his right leg on August 14) and seeing action in left field in three games. Hernandez was third in the league in on-base percentage and walks, fourth in doubles, sixth in runs and game-winning-RBI and ninth in slugging percentage. Hernandez was the only Cardinal named to the 1981 Gold Glove team...Was the victim of Tom Seaver's 3,000th strikeout on 4/18.

1980 was yet another successful season for Keith, both offensively and defensively. Finished second in the N.L. in hitting with a .321 average. Led the league in runs scored, 111 and on-base percentage .408. Ranked 3rd in N.L. in hits 191, 4th in doubles 39, 5th in RBI's 99, 5th in walks 86. Led the club in games played 159, at bats 595, hits, doubles, walks and game winning RBI - 13. Hit a career high of 16 homers...Led club in extra base hits with 63.

In 1979, he was named co-recipient of the National League MVP Award, sharing the honor with Pittsburgh's Willie Stargell...marked the first time in the 49-year history of the award that two players have shared the trophy. Both received 216 points...but Hernandez was the only player named on all 24 ballots. Is the 14th Cardinals' player to win the MVP Award. Had an outstanding 1979 season. Led the National League (and major leagues) in hitting with a .344 average. Became first Cardinal to win batting title since Joe Torre in 1971. The last first baseman to win a National League batting title was Stan Musial in 1957. He also led the league in doubles, with 48, and in runs scored, with 116. Led the club with 105 RBI, ranked 5th in the league in that category. Became the 18th player in Cardinals' history to collect 200 or more hits in a season...finished with 210 hits, 2nd in the league to teammate Garry Templeton. Led the club in walks with 80 and in games played with 161. Selected to National League All-Star team for the first time in his career. Led team in game-winning RBI's with 16, 3rd in the league. Led the team in extra-base hits with 70, finished 8th in National League with .513 slugging percentage.

Had great season at the plate and in the field in 1977...appeared in all but one game...had three grandslams, the first of his career, including two in September to tie a National League record for most bases-filled home runs in a month... Sizzled at the plate in last half of 1976 season after very slow start...had good September 1975 performance...batted .317 after returning to Cardinals in last month of season...got off to slow start with the bat in 1975...was hitting .203 when he was sent to Tulsa June 5...hit his first major league homer May 24 in Los Angeles against Dodger southpaw Doug Rau...joined Cardinals August 30, 1974, and started three games in his home town of San Francisco...after walking in his first major league at-bat, Hernandez singled to drive in run off lefty Mike Caldwell in the 9th inning of the August 30 game...finished second in American Association batting race in 1975 after capturing 1974 title with .351 mark at Tulsa.

Awards/Honors – Has won five consecutive Rawlings/Sporting News Gold Gloves as an All-Star first baseman (1978-82). In 1980 he was selected to The Sporting News National League post-season All-Star Team and was also named to the Sporting News first-ever N.L. Silver Bat Team. He was chosen as the 1979 National League Player of the Year in the players' poll conducted by The Sporting News. Selected National League Player of the Month for August. Named to AP, UPI, Baseball Bulletin and Sporting News National League post-season All-Star teams. Named National League "Performer of the Year" by Baseball Magazine in an exclusive poll of National League managers and named "Sports Personality of the Year" by the Missouri Athletic Club...Was named the National League's Player of the Week for April 12-18, 1982.

Misc. – Was first athlete in the history of Capuchino High School (CA.) to make all-league teams in three major sports. He was a quarterback in football and a guard on the basketball team. He had a .500 batting average in high school, a record in the Peninsula High School League. He attended San Mateo Junior College for two years. He and his wife, Sue (Horn) live in St. Louis with their two daughters – Jessica Joy, born in April, 1973, and Melissa Sue born in June, 1980...Hernandez is a history buff and has appeared on radio talk shows to discuss his knowledge of the Civil War...Both his father (John) and brother (Gary) played in the Cardinals' minor league system.

THOMAS (TOM) MITCHELL HERR (28)

Infielder Ht: 6-0 Wt: 190
Bats: Both Throws: Right
Age: 26 (Turns 27 on April 4) Born: 4-4-56 at Lancaster, Pennsylvania

Became Cardinal – August 2, 1974...Signed as a free agent by scout Tim Thompson.

M.L. Service – 3.014.

1982 – Herr was perhaps the Cardinals' biggest question mark going into the 1981 season but completed his first full season in the major leagues playing like an all-star and maintained that performance level through 1982 also. Defensively, he's quick and agile, and turns the double play with ease...Over the last two seasons at second base he has committed only 14 errors, the lowest figure in the National League. At the plate he's equally as steady. Except for a three game period at the start of 1982, Herr has not gone more than two games without getting a hit in 1981 or 1982. That consistency earned him the lead-off position in the batting order in both years...Herr was second on the 1982 team in runs scored and stolen bases... Herr was slowed by injury in the 1982 season. He pulled a quadriceps muscle sliding into home on May 13 and missed numerous games in the following month while the injury lingered. It was the first time he had missed any games since the 1980 season...The highlight of his season was an April 20 game vs. Pittsburgh when Tommy was on base five times in five trips to the plate with a triple, three singles and as a hit batsman...On April 17 he took part in two double steals, including a steal of home which marked the third career theft of home for Herr...Set a World Series record in Game #4 when two runners scored on Herr's long sacrifice fly... Had arthroscopic surgery on his right knee during the off-season to repair damaged cartilage.

Career Highlights – Herr fulfilled Whitey Herzog's faith in him after he traded third baseman Ken Reitz in 1980 and moved the Redbird second baseman, Ken Oberkfell, to third base to open up a spot for Tommy. Herr quickly proved he could play every day, both offensively and defensively. He made only 5 errors in 590 total chances (.992 fielding percentage) and took part in 74 double plays. Herr was the only Cardinal player to start each of St. Louis' 103 games. He was just as steady and dependable at the plate and earned the right to the Cardinals' lead-off batter. His nine triples were enough to place him third in the league in that category. He led the Cardinals in at-bats, triples, sacrifices and stolen bases.

Herr, after a shaky 1980 start, seemed to demonstrate in late season he was able to cope with major league pitching. After hitting only .163 in the first two months of the season, he was optioned to Springfield on June 21. Recalled in August for 11 days (August 2-12) he batted .281, and in September, when he again joined the St. Louis club, he was 86-29 .337.

Opened the 1979 season at Springfield of the American Association. Batted .293 and increased home run production to 6. Led the Springfield club in triples with 6. Had 48 RBI. Showed great speed – stole 29 bases in 1979, 30 bases in 1978 and led Florida State League with 50 in 1977. Recalled from Springfield on August 10, 1979. Used primarily as a pinch-runner. Started several games at second base. First major league appearance was as pinch-runner for Ken Reitz in game of August 13 and he scored the winning run for Cards' 3-2 victory. Grounded out in his first major league at-bat vs. Dodgers' Bobby Castillo in August 16 game. On August 31 singled off verteran Mickey Lolich in 2nd offical at-bat for first major league hit. Was spiked by Mets' Richie Hebner on force play at second base in 1st game of doubleheader on September 22 and was out for the remainder of the season.

Hit .303 at St. Petersburg in 1977 with league-leading totals of 515 at-bats, 80 runs, 156 hits and 50 stolen bases...finished fourth in the league in batting average ...named as all-league second baseman in 1973 and all-league shortstop in 1974 during final two years at Hempfield High School in Landisville, Pa...named as MVP in All-East Pa. All-Star Game and Eastern Pa. Regional Championship... selected on 1978 Texas League All-Star team.

Misc. – Tommy earned 11 high school letters in four sports. He and his wife, Kim, were married on January 7, 1978. They live in Denver, Pennsylvania, with their son Aaron who was born on March 7, 1981, just in time for dad to get a few days off from spring training to be in attendance at the birth...pronounces his last name like the opposite of him.

Awards – Named as all-league second baseman in 1973 and all-league shortstop in 1974 during final two years at Hempfield High School in Landisville, PA....Named as MVP in All-East PA all-star game and Eastern PA Regional Championship...Selected on 1978 Texas League All-Star Team.

RICKY HORTON (49)

Pitcher Ht: 6-2 Wt: 195
Bats: Left Throws: Left
Age: 23 (Turns 24 on July 30) Born: 7-30-59 at Poughkeepsie, New York

Became Cardinal – Selected 4th by the Cardinals in the June, 1980, free agent draft. Signed by scouts Roland Johnson and Tim Thompson.

M.L. Service – 0.000.

1982 – Won more games in 1982 for Arkansas than he ever had in his minor league career with nine victories in 16 games. Is not an overpowering pitcher but has good control and a solid breaking pitch...Was called up to Louisville late in the season and started six of the eight games in which he appeared.

Career Highlights – On July 28, 1980 he pitched a no-hit, no-run game as Gastonia defeated Charleston, 4-0. Horton relieved after two were out in the first inning and completed the no-hitter in the 7-inning nightcap of a doubleheader...Attended Virginia University and lettered in baseball 1978-80. Selected second-team All-ACC in 1980...Was drafted by the San Francisco Giants in 1977 but did not sign.

DANE CHARLES IORG (19)

Bats: Left Throws: Right
Age: 32 (Turns 33 on May 11) Born: 5-11-50 at Eureka, California

Became Cardinal – June 15, 1977. The Cardinals obtained the contract of Iorg from the Philadelphia Phillies along with the contracts of Tom Underwood and Rick Bosetti in exchange for the contracts of Bake McBride and Steve Waterbury.

M.L. Service – 5.016.

1982 – Just as in previous years, Iorg did everything he was asked to do. In 1982 he performed as a starter and a left-handed pinch hitter; played in left field, right field, and first and third bases. Offensively, Iorg continued to hit major league pitching with relative ease for a player who doesn't start every day. He thrives on pressure situations, collected a large proportion of his hits when there were already two outs in an inning. And, for the fourth consecutive year, Iorg notched more RBI as a pinch hitter than any other Cardinal batter despite often having fewer at-bats...Continued to feast on Montreal pitching, as in years past. This campaign saw him bat .400 (16-40) against the Expos...Put on an exceptional performance during the World Series. Iorg's nine hits as a designated hitter tied him with two others for the most hits by a D.H. in series history. He also became the first D.H. ever in Game 6 to get three extra-base hits in a World Series game.

Career Highlights – In 1981 Iorg was platooned in left field (with Tito Landum and Gene Roof) and used as a left-handed pinch hitter. Iorg's fielding versatility showed through once again as he played eight games at first, two at third, 46 in left field and 14 in right field. His .327 average included 39 RBI, five of which were game winners. And, he led Cardinal pinch-hitters with 8 RBI in just 14 at-bats.

In 1980 he played the outfield, first base and one game at third base. As a pinch-hitter, he was the Cardinals' most productive man with 10 hits (including 4 doubles) in 38 times at bat for a .263 average. Putting together a fine 1979 season as both a pinch-hitter and a regular. Dane was Cards' most productive hitter off the bench. In that role he batted .282 (31-11) with 8 RBI. Of his 4 game-winning RBI, 3 came as a pinch hitter. On May 8 in Houston as a pinch-hitter he slammed his first major league home run off Ken Forsch to lead the Cards to a 4-0 win over Astros.

Won the 1978 American Assn. batting title with .371...In 1977 started the season with Phillies while Richie Hebner was on disabled list...contract transferred from Oklahoma City to New Orleans on June 15...joined Cardinals in July...sent back to New Orleans July 29, but returned to stay on August 19...batted .500 in September to raise average above .300 mark for his first major league season... 1977 was fifth time he has batted over .300 in minor leagues, including career-high .367 at Walla Walla in first pro campaign after signing with Phillies as 1971 top draft choice.

Misc. – Dane played four years each of baseball, basketball and football at Arcata, Cal. High School. He attended Brigham Young University where he was named All-American in his senior year. He and his wife, the former Gay Court, have five children – Tamra Lee, 9; Kadi Gay, 7; Charles, 5; Derek, 3; and Seth. Dane lives in Orem, Utah where he is a sporting goods salesman in the off-season...pronounces his last name to rhyme with gorge.

JAMES (JIM) LEE KAAT (36)

Pitcher Ht: 6-5 Wt: 215
Bats: Left Throws: Left
Age: 44 (Turns 45 on November 7) Born: 11-7-38 at Zeeland, Michigan

Became Cardinal – Purchased the contract of Kaat from the New York Yankees on April 30, 1980.

M.L. Service – 22.097.

1982 – Like the Timex watch that "takes a licking, but keeps on ticking," Jim Kaat continued to make his living throwing a baseball. At age 43, Kaat appeared in more games last year than he ever had in a major league career that spans four decades. Often, he was called upon only to retire one left-handed batter, but he was also asked to go several innings and even was called on to start two games. The "Kitty Man" still had the ability to pitch effectively and get his team out of a jam. And, if a bunt was expected, who better to put in the game than the sure-handed Kaat, who won 16 consecutive Gold Gloves between 1962 and 1977...Kaat made major league history on April 6 when he appeared in the Cards' opening game and became the first pitcher ever to appear in 24 major league seasons, passing Early Wynn's record of 23. The ageless wonder moved up a notch to 16th on the all-time ranking for innings pitched, and jumped to fifth in number of games played... Created fans for himself across the country on August 2 when he appeared in relief against the Pittsburgh Pirates in a nationally televised game that lasted 17 innings. Kaat pitched the last six innings of relief for the Cards in a brave performance that culminated in a St. Louis loss after the Birds stranded 24 men.

Career Highlights – The 1981 season proved to be another milestone for veteran pitcher Jim Kaat as he tied Early Wynn for the pitcher with the most years of service in the major leagues (23). Kaat continued to amaze all with his ability to pitch effectively after appearing in four decades of baseball. Kaat was valuable as a relief man, winning and saving numerous games for the Cards. He also started one game for the Cards, a loss to Pittsburgh on 9/25.

Began the 1980 season with the Yankees and was designated for assignment in mid-April...Proved to be a valuable part of Cards pitching staff...Used in short or long relief...Or as a spot starter. Stats as a starter...14 games 5-5 record...6 complete games...Third on staff. Stats as a reliever...35 games...3-2 record. Best performance of the year June 4 in New York...Jim tossed a 10 inning 1-0 win over the Mets...Also pitched clubs' shortest game of the season (1:39) a 6-1 complete game win over the Phils. Last complete game, September 25, 1980...A 10-2 win over the Pirates.

One of select few to play in four decades (others: Willie McCovey, Mickey Vernon, Ted Williams, Early Wynn, Minnie Minoso and Tim McCarver). He's second to Garylord Perry (308) most wins among active players. Has had 15 winning seasons...Has won 20 or more games three times including a 25-13 season in 1966 with the Twins. Recorded over 10 victories for 15 consecutive years from 1962-1976. Was originally signed by Washington Senators on 6-17-57. Off to a great start in 1972 (10-2) when on July 2 he suffered a fracture of the navicular bone in left wrist while sliding into second base and missed the remainder of the season. Sold to Chicago White Sox (9-15-73). Traded with shortstop Mike Buskey to Philadelphia for Alan Bannister, Dick Ruthven and Roy Thomas (12-10-75). Sold to New York Yankees (5-11-79). Granted free agent (11-1-79).

Awards/Honors – Kaat's 16 career home runs are the most by an active pitcher. Named American League Pitcher of the Year by The Sporting News in 1966. Won 16 consecutive Gold Gloves between 1962 and 1977. Was named to 3 American League All-Star Teams (1962, 1966 and 1975).

Misc. – Attended Hope College in Holland, Michigan for four years...his last name is pronounced "Cott"...he's married to the former Linda Jankowski. They have two children, Jim Jr. and Jill, and they live in Glen Mills, PA.

JEFFREY B. KEENER (44)

Pitcher Ht: 6-2 Wt: 160
Bats: Right Throws: Right
Age: 24 Born: 1-14-59 at Pana, Illinois

Became Cardinal – Selected 6th in the regular phase of the June, 1981, free agent draft. Signed by scouts Mo Mozzali and Virgil Melvin.

M.L. Service – 0.091.

1982 – Started the year with the Arkansas Travelers in the AA Texas League where he posted a 4-3 record with six saves and a 2.37 ERA in 24 games. Those numbers prompted his promotion to St. Louis on June 7 when Steve Braun was placed on the disabled list. The submarine pitcher made an impressive debut the next day when, entering a game against Montreal in the eighth inning with the scored tied, he struck out the first two batters he faced and retired the next two on a pop-up and a grounder...He got his first major league win on June 28 vs. New York... Keener was optioned to Louisville on August 3 when John Martin was recalled from Louisville, but joined the big league team again on September 1.

Career Highlights – In 1981 was a second team All-American and was selected on All-Southeastern Conference team...Named MVP of the 1981 SEC Tournament...Set an all-time NCAA ERA record at Kentucky in his senior year when he posted a mark of 0.57...Attended Southeastern, Ill. J.C. prior to Kentucky...Graduated from Edwards County, Ill. High School in 1977...Lettered in baseball, basketball and football.

JEFF LAHTI (32)

Pitcher Ht: 6-0 Wt: 180
Bats: Right Throws: Right
Age: 26 (Turns 27 on October 8) Born: 10-8-56 at Oregon City, Oregon

Became Cardinal – April 1, 1982 along with pitcher Jose Brito in a trade with Cincinnati for Bob Shirley.

M.L. Service – 0.100.

1982 – When Lahti was informed on April Fool's Day that he had been traded he wondered whether it was a joke. It wasn't, and the Cardinals and Lahti are both happy about it. Outrighted to Louisville when he was acquired, he appeared in 21 games for the Cardinals' AAA affiliate, going 3-2 with 2 saves and a 4.22 ERA. In 32-1/3 innings pitched he gave up only 29 hits and eight walks while striking out 19...Lahti was called up to St. Louis on June 26 when Mark Littell was designated for assignment. He provided solid relief help and showed an ability to appear in both short and long situations, even getting a starting assignment on September 7 vs. Montreal... He picked up his first major league win on July 16 in a three and one-third inning appearance in a 6-4 St. Louis victory over his former teammates...Twice he went six innings in relief to pick up wins.

Career Highlights – Was Indianapolis' top relief pitcher in 1981 when he won six games and saved five others in 50 games...He had 12 saves to rank second in the Eastern League with Waterbury in 1980...In 1979 he was the MVP of his Greensboro team when he led the Western Carolinas League with 13 saves.

Misc. – During the off-season Lahti appeared at several baseball clinics for kids and also started a sailboard business with some friends in Hood River, Oregon.

TERRY (TITO) LEE LANDRUM (21)

Outfielder Ht: 5-11 Wt: 175
Bats: Right Throws: Right
Age: 28 Born: 10-25-54 at Joplin, Missouri

Became Cardinal – Signed as a non-drafted free agent on October 10, 1972 by Cardinal scout Joe Ford.

M.L. Service – 2.038.

1982 – Tito served the Cardinals well in his multiple roles as a pinch-hitter, pinch-runner, occasional starter, reserve outfielder and defensive replacement. He exploded on the Cardinals first West Coast swing of the year in May by going 12-22 with two home runs (the first of his major league career), and eight RBI...He was optioned to Louisville on August 5 when Green was brought up, but joined the big club again on September 1...His .278 average stands as a high mark in Landrum's brief major league career.

Career Highlights – In 1981, Landrum was the only Redbird outfielder with 20 or more chances to perform flawlessly in the field. earned a shot at the big leagues with a superior performance at Springfield during the first halp of the 1980 season. Came to the Cardinals on July 22, pinch hit unsuccessfully on July 23 vs. Los Angeles, and then, in his first major league start, went 4-for-5, including a double, at San Diego on July 25. His first hit was a double against Randy Jones...He was with the Cardinals in spring training in 1977...Was state batting champion in the New Mexico Babe Ruth League with .450 batting average despite never playing baseball in high school (Highland of Albuquerque, N.M)...Had nine straight hits in his first professional season at Orangeburg.

Misc. – Spent 7-plus years in the minors before making it to the Cardinals in 1980...Has worked as a model in his spare time...Played winter ball in Venezuala this past off-season in order to work on his plate performance...He attended Eastern Oklahoma State Junior College for two years...He and his wife Theresa have a daughter, Melissa, and another child expected in the off-season.

DAVID JEFFREY LaPOINT (39)

Pitcher Ht: 6-3 Wt: 215
Bats: Left Throws: Left
Age: 23 (Turns 24 on July 29) Born: 7-29-59 at Glens Falls, New York

Became Cardinal – December 12, 1980 in trade with Milwaukee with Sixto Lezcano, Lary Sorensen and Dave Green for Ted Simmons, Rollie Fingers and Pete Vuckovich.

M.L. Service – 1.062.

1982 – LaPoint continued his record of never having had a losing record in professional baseball by posting a winning record in his first full season in the big leagues. He started the season in the bullpen but worked his way in as the Cardinals' only left-handed starter in May when John Martin was optioned to Louisville. Responded with two wins in his first two starts and looked strong through July while being used both as a starter and in relief. In August he was knocked out early in two starts and spent most of September in the bullpen although he emerged to start and win the 4-2 Cardinal decision over Montreal on September 27 that clinched the National League East title...The Cards were 16-5 in games LaPoint started... He was 4-0 in the day time and 5-0 on the road...His stats as a starter: 8-3 record, 21 games started, 125.1 IP, 3.52 EPA. As a reliever: 1-0 record, 21 games, 27.1 IP, 2.96 ERA...LaPoint did not have any complete games but consistently got the Cards into the late innings.

Career Highlights – Started the 1981 season at Springfield where he led the American Association in strikeouts and games started. After arriving in St. Louis on September 2, LaPoint sat out for several weeks with a shoulder problem and finally saw relief action on September 24; a two-inning stint vs. Philadelphia in which he gave up only one hit. Three days later he got his first National League start and went 5.1 innings in 7-5 winning effort against Pittsburgh. In 1980, he had a 4-1 record with Vancouver in 8 games in April and May with 2.25 earned run average...sore elbow caused him to miss all of June and part of July...Allowed only one run in 17 innings in July, and finished the second half of the season with 3-3 mark and 3.23 ERA...recalled by Milwaukee on September 6, pitched 3 shutout innings on September 10 to earn a save in major league debut at Minnesota...In his first major league start, he beat Seattle, 8-4, going 6-2/3 innings. In 1979 at Stockton, he had an average of 10.4 strikeouts per game, and led the California League with 208, and tied for lead in complete games (11).

Misc. – LaPoint became the second youngest pitcher to win games in both the National League and American League when he got his first N.L. win on September 27, 1981. He was 22 at the time. Jack Salveson accomplished the feat at age 21 with a N.L. win in 1934 and A.L. win in 1935...LaPoint is 15th on the list of youngsters winning games in two or more leagues, according to research done by the Society for American Baseball Research...LaPoint married the former Cathy Bangs on February 7, 1981...He is a collector of baseball cards...Lettered in baseball, football and bowling at Glens Falls, N.Y. High School. Was All-Conference centerfielder in '75, All-Conference first-baseman in '76 and All-Conference pitcher in '77 as well as being named New York State Pitcher of the Year in his senior year... He was also an All-Conference defensive end in football his senior year.

JOHN ROBERT MARTIN (33)

Pitcher Ht: 6-0 Wt: 190
Bats: Right Throws: Left
Age: 26 (Turns 27 on April 11) Born: 4-11-56 at Wyandotte, Michigan

Became Cardinal – June 3, 1980. Acquired by Cardinals' Springfield, Illinois, affiliate along with OF-1B Altar Greene from Evansville in exchange for outfielder Jim Lentine.

M.L. Service – 1.139.

1982 – Based on his 1981 performance, expectations were high for Martin when the 1982 season opened, but the quiet left-hander struggled with his control and after losing his spot in the starting rotation was optioned to Louisville in early June. He worked on his delivery, and after posting a 5-3 record with six complete games in 11 starts he earned a trip back to St. Louis in August. In his first 10 appearances after being brought up, all in relief, Martin gave up only one earned run.

Career Highlights – In 1981, he was called up from Springfield on May 11 to take the roster spot left open by Andy Rincon's assignment to the disabled list. After two relief appearances, he provided unexpectedly solid starting ability and quickly became an integral part of the starting rotation. His 8-5 record included four complete outings; the high for the team. Martin became the club's designated "giant killer" by virtue of his 3-1, four-hit victory over Nolan Ryan on 5/21 in the youngster's first start of the year, and his 5-2 win over Steve Carlton on 8/13; the first victory the Cards notched over "Lefty" in a 10-game stretch.

In 1980 Martin was a relief pitcher at Evansville and Springfield, before and after the June trade that brought him to the Cardinal organization. Then he suffered a broken foot, and when he was ready to come off the disabled list, Springfield had no one it could easily move. So Martin went to Arkansas, had a 1-1 record in five games as a starter, with a 1.67 earned run average, about the time the St. Louis club, hit by injuries, needed a pitcher. Martin went in as a reliever on his second day with the Cardinals, pitched 7 innings, allowing 5 hits, 1 run, 1 walk and 5 strikeouts to score a 10-2 victory against Houston. All his other decisions were as a starter, including a 3-2 victory over the New York Mets on the final day of the season.

Martin was drafted in the 27th round of the June, 1978 free agent draft by the Detroit Tigers, had two good minor league seasons and, as a result, was taken to spring training with the Tigers in 1980 as a non-roster prospect.

Misc. – He graduated from Flat Rock, MI. High School in 1974, and attended Eastern Michigan University...Is noted for being the quietest member of the Cards' pitching staff.

WILLIE DEAN McGEE (51)

Outfielder Ht: 6-1 Wt: 175
Bats: Both Throws: Right
Age: 24 Born: 11-2-58 at San Francisco, California

Became Cardinal – October 21, 1981 from New York Yankees' organization in exchange for the contract of pitcher Bob Sykes.

M.L. Service – 0.148.

1982 – McGee was called up from Louisville to replace injured David Green in May and surprised many by earning the starter's role in the center field. Batting only .291 at Louisville in his first year at the AAA level, he proceeded to storm the big leagues by hitting in the .300 area all season. His .296 final average was the highest mark posted by a rookie in the National League. McGee led the Cardinals in triples and tied for the lead in hits by pinch-hitters. His tremendous speed allowed him to cover vast territory in the outfield and he proved to have a strong and accurate arm. His overall performance had the upstart McGee under consideration for Rookie of the Year honors. He finished third in the league's competition in that area and was named to the Topp's Chewing Gum All-Star Rookie team... Possibly one of the fastest base runners in the majors, McGee was a constant threat to steal a base although his status as a rookie showed through in his tendency to get picked off base...His first major league home run was a grand slam against the Braves on July 20 at Busch Stadium...McGee made his presence known to the world in Game 3 of the World Series when he connected for his first hit of the Series, a three-run homer. He hit a second home run later in the game to set a World Series record for home runs by a rookie in one game. He also made two spectacular leaping catches to rob the Brewers of home runs in the game...McGee tied a World Series record for outfielders with 24 putouts in the Series.

Career Highlights – McGee came on strong in 1981 with a .322 performance in Double-A baseball, third highest average in the Southern League, and drew praise from baseball critics for his speed and defensive play also. He was the Yankees' No. 1 choice in the secondary phase of the Jan., 1977 free agent draft. He was a member of the California championship team at Diablo Valley Junior College, and played amateur baseball also in the Little League, Babe Ruth and American Legion programs.

Awards – Made the Topps Chewing Gum All-Star Rookie team in 1982.

Misc. – McGee is one of six children in his family.

KENNETH (KEN) RAY OBERKFELL (10)

Infielder Ht: 6-1 Wt: 185
Bats: Left Throws: Right
Age: 26 (Turns 27 on May 4) Born: 5-4-56 at Highland, Illinois

Became Cardinal – May 4, 1975 Signed as a free agent by scouts Fred McAlister and Joe Mathes.

M.L. Service – 4.130.

1982 – "Obie" began the season on the disabled list after breaking a bone in his left thumb during an exhibition game on March 31. He was reinstated on April 23 and picked up where he left off in 1981 by turning in a strong defensive showing at his newly adopted position. He led all third basemen this year with a .972 fielding percentage ...Offensively he didn't have the type of year one would have expected. After batting .300 during his first two full years in the majors, and coming close last season; Oberkfell's average and RBI totals dropped considerably in 1982. However, he was hot during September, batting .360 and raising his average 16 points.

Career Highlights – Was moved to third base from second in spring training of 1981 to replace traded Ken Reitz and to make room for Tommy Herr at second. He adapted well to the change, fielding a strong .956 and showing good range while accepting a league leading .338 chances and turning a league leading 23 double plays. At the plate, he fell below .300 for the first time in 3 years, but was still one of the Cardinals steadier players, offensively. He drove in 45 runs, a considerable amount for someone who batted in the bottom half of the order most of the year. Obie got off to a slow start in 1980, and was batting only .250, when he suffered a sprained left knee when Steve Garvey of the Dodgers "took him out" on a force play at second base...Ken was out six weeks, from May 11 until June 20 but he came back strong...From that point until the end of the season, he hit for a .314 average so that he finished above .300 again (he also did it in 1979, his first full big league season)...From August 2 to the end of the season, he batted .349, thanks mainly to a 103-39 .379 month of August...All three of his homers were on the road, one of them an inside-the-park on April 27 at Philadelphia.

In 1979 one of the primary reasons for the Redbirds' success was the emergence of Oberkfell at second base. Obie platooned with Mike Tyson for the first part of the season. By July he solidified his position as team's first-string second baseman and was the National League's best fielding second baseman according to official statistics with .985.

Split 1978 season between Springfield and St. Louis...Served as reserve infielder after joining Cardinals from New Orleans in August, 1977 following Don Kessinger's move to White Sox...Made major league debut as pinch-hitter against Dodgers August 22...Obtained first big league hit and RBI with single against Mets' Pat Zachry in October 2 finale...Broke in with .352 average at Johnson City in 1975, and followed that with .351 mark at St. Pete the same season.

Misc. — A native of nearby Highland, Illinois, he was a two-year baseball MVP at Collinsville High School...Played basketball for two years, too...Attended Belleville Area Junior College for one year and was a 1975 J.C. All-American...Now lives in Troy, Illinois, with his wife, Bonnie. The Oberkfells have three children, Tami Rae, born on May 22, 1981 and twins Joseph Ray and Elizabeth Rae, born on September 8, 1982.

KELLY J. PARIS (12)

Shortstop Ht: 6-0 Wt: 190
Bats: Both Throws: Right
Age: 25 Born: 10-17-57 at Encino, California

Became Cardinal – Second round selection in the June, 1975, free agent draft.

M.L. Service – 0.033.

1982 – Paris spent 33 days with the Cardinals during the 1982 September pennant drive. Called up on September 1, Paris aided the Cardinal cause in his first major league at bat. He led off the 13th inning of a 5-5 game against Los Angeles with a single and subsequently scored the game-winning run...He started seven games during his stay; 4 at shortstop and 3 at third base...A solid infielder, he has the ability to play each position on the infield...Paris batted .328 at Louisville to lead the team in average and finish seventh in the American Association. His total of 83 RBI was the second highest on the team. He led the team in stolen bases with 20 thefts.

Career Highlights – In 1981 he held his own in his first year at the AAA level. He hit for average and showed that he can be a good fielding shortstop. Suffered broken ankle in a game at Oklahoma City on July 24 and was sidelined the remainder of the season. Led 1977 Appalachian League in sacrifice flies with 7. He teamed with brother, Brett, to hit back-to-back first inning homers vs. Elizabethton on August 26, 1976, a win that clinched the Appalachian League Championship for the Johnson City Cardinals. He graduated from Woodland Hills (California) High School in 1975 and was an All-League baseball player in 1974-75.

Misc. – Played winter ball with the Magallanes team in Venezuela...Was named to the American Association All-Star team.

DARRELL RAY PORTER (15)

Catcher Ht: 6-1 Wt: 202
Bats: Left Throws: Right
Age: 31 Born: 1-17-52 at Joplin, Missouri

Became Cardinal – Signed as free agent December 13, 1980, after selection in re-entry draft.

M.L. Service – 10.075.

1982 – Porter's 1982 performance will long be remembered and measured by his post-season performance. After spending the regular season trying to find the consistent swing that earned him four All-Star squad nominations while in Kansas City, Porter exploded during the playoffs. He was named MVP of both the LCS and the World Series, batting .351 over the post-season period and playing outstanding defense... During the regular season he hit above his .250 career average on the road, but struggled at home. Still, he maintained his reputation as a strong defensive catcher and was credited by many with being the steadying influence on the Cards' pitching staff whose performance far surpassed pre-season expectations...For the second year in a row Porter spent part of the season on the disabled list after he fractured his right index finger when hit by a foul tip on May 14...Joined the 1,000 hit club this year...Still shows a keen eye, with only Hernandez drawing walks as consistently as Porter.

Career Highlights – Was the cog on which the Cardinals' 1980 winter trades were based; however early injury in 1981 prevented him from fully living up to expectations. He had problems with his right arm in spring training that nagged him through the first month of the season. Dismissed at first as just tight scar tissue, it resulted in his placement on the disabled list on May 18 with a slightly torn rotator cuff. After an extended period of rest he returned to active duty on August 19.

Darrell came to the Cardinals in 1981 after eight full seasons (service in 10 years) in the American League with an impressive record, including selection to four All-Star squads, participation in three championship series and one World Series...He has a reputation as a fine defensive catcher with a strong throwing arm and a lifetime batting average of .251 with a constant threat of power...His batting average over his last four seasons at K.C. was .271. His top professional season was 1979, when, according to Whitey Herzog, his manager then and now, he should have been the American League's Most Valuable Player. In that season he was fifth in the league in RBI, tied for fifth in triples and ninth in runs. He collected 100 RBI, runs and walks that season; becoming only the second catcher in A.L. history to achieve that (the other: Mickey Cochrane of Detroit in 1932) and the first A.L. player to do it since Carl Yazstremski of Boston in 1970...His 1980 performance dropped off possibly as a result of missing most of spring training and the early part of the season while undergoing rehabilitation from an alcohol problem. He was the No. 1 selection of the Milwaukee Brewers in the June, 1970, free-agent draft, and came to Kansas City on December 6, 1976, with pitcher Jim Colborn for outfielder Jim Wohlford, infielder Jamie Quirk and a player to be named later.

Awards/Honors – Named Most Valuable Player of both the 1982 National League Championship Series and the World Series...Named to American League All-Star Team in 1974, 1978, 1979 and 1980.

Misc. – He attended Southeast High School in Oklahoma City, and was All-Oklahoma in baseball, and All-America as a quarterback in football...He reached an agreement with the Cardinals while he and his wife Deanne were on their honeymoon cruise in the Caribbean in December, 1980. The Porters became parents for the first time on March 31, 1982 when Lindsey Deanne was born.

JAMES (JAMIE) PATRICK QUIRK (38)

Catcher-Infielder Ht: 6-4 Wt: 200
Bats: Left Throws: Right
Age: 28 Born: 10-22-54 at Whittier, California

Became Cardinal – Acquired on January 28, 1983 as a free agent.

M.L. Service – 6.089.

1982 – Quirk caught in 29 contests in 1982, his highest total in a single season. He also saw action at first, third, and in the outfield. Quirk has performed at every position except centerfield and as a pitcher while he has been in the majors...His best day of the season was May 5 in a 4-4 effort against Milwaukee...Was placed on the 15-day disabled list on August 10 due to lower back strain.

Career Highlights – As in past years, Quirk proved valuable to the Royals in 1981 as a talented utility man. He was used at third, first, in the outfield and behind the plate where he recorded most of his playing time. He caught in 22 contests in his seventh season compared to a lifetime total of 24 in his previous six years...1980 was a busy campaign for Quirk. He filled a role as a utility player, pinch hitter and spot starter. Began the year behind the plate platooning with John Wathan. Quirk handled regular chores against right handed pitching...He put on a solid defensive performance at third base when he spelled injured George Brett in 20 contests at mid-season... Posted his highest batting average as a pro in 1979 when he hit .304 over 15 games. He was the Royals' biggest weapon off the bench as 32 of his appearances came in the pinch hitter's role...Quirk started his career in the Kansas City organization, making it to the big leagues in 1975 but was traded to the Milwaukee Brewers prior to the 1977 season in a deal that brought Darrell Porter and Jim Colborn to K.C. in exchange for Jamie, Bob McClure and Jim Wohlford...His one year stay in Milwaukee was a busy one; Quirk played in a career high 93 contests while batting .217 with 3 homers and 13 RBI. He returned to the Royals in August of 1978 from the Brewers triple A affiliate in order to strengthen K.C.'s infield strength down the stretch... Quirk's first major league home run came as a pinch hitter on Sept. 20, 1975 against Oakland's Rollie Fingers...Prior to being called up to the big leagues in 1975, Quirk was a hit in Omaha where he topped American Association third basemen in fielding while batting .274 with 13 homers and 64 RBI's. He was selected by the Omaha fans as "The Most Popular Player".

Misc. – Quirk was the Royals' top draft choice in the June, 1972 free agent draft. He attended St. Paul High in Santa Fe Springs, California, where he was a 4-year baseball letterman. He also earned three letters in football and basketball...He was an outstanding prep quarterback and signed a letter of intent with Notre Dame after being offered over 30 scholarships...Hit over .400 in his final two seasons at St. Paul and played in the California North-South All-Star game at Candlestick Park...Was married on January 15, 1983 to the former Anna Holtmann. Quirk reached agreement with the Cardinals while on his honeymoon in Hawaii. He became the second Kansas City catcher turned free agent to join the Redbirds while on his honeymoon. In December of 1980, Darrell Porter agreed to move from Kansas City to St. Louis while he was on a honeymoon cruise.

MICHAEL JEFFREY RAMSEY (5)

Infielder Ht: 6-1 Wt: 175
Bats: Both Throws: Right
Age: 28 (Turns 29 on March 29) Born: 3-29-54 at Roanoke, Virginia

Became Cardinal – Selected third by the Cardinals in June 1975, free-agent draft. Signed by Eddie Lyons.

M.L. Service – 3.007.

1982 – Ramsey's 1982 performance earned him recognition as one of baseball's best reserve players. Able to play second base, shortstop and third base, with confidence, Ramsey could be a starter on many teams. As it is, for the second year in a row, Ramsey replaced injured front-liners for long periods of time, performing steadily and at times spectacularly. He handled second base chores for over 30 games while Herr was out during May and June with a pull hamstring, and batted .292 during that period. Later during the September pennant drive, he was called on to play shortstop when Ozzie Smith injured his right leg and missed an extended stretch of games...During that time frame, Ramsey played errorless ball in 14 games and also was the only Cardinal to play every inning of every game in a busy stretch that at one point saw the team play 5 games, 49 innings, over a 48 hour period in New York...Ramsey hit the first home run of his major league career on July 25 when his three-run round-tripper helped the Cardinals to a 4-3 victory over Houston.

Career Highlights – In 1981 he stepped in as the starting shortstop when Garry Templeton re-injured his knee and was placed on the disabled list. He was able to make the plays in the field. However, his bat cooled off in August after hovering around .370, a mark he reached mostly as a pinch-hitter before the strike. He was injured on June 4 when he broke the 5th metacarpal bone in his right hand attempting to turn the double play against Montreal. His value as a versitile infield reserve was enhanced in 1980 when he played second shortstop and third base, and also served as a pinch-hitter and runner...He filled in as a starting second baseman from May 22 to June 11 after Ken Oberkfell was injured and hit .291 in that period, including a seven game hitting streak (30-11 .367)...He had a short stay with St. Louis in 1978...He was named to the 1975 Appalachian League All-Star team while with Johnson City. He spent the last half of the 1976 season on the disabled list with a leg injury.

Misc. – He attended Roswell, GA., High School from 1969 to 1972 and was the leading hitter there in 1971 and Most Valuable Player in 1972. He was also the MVP at Appalachian State University in 1974 and 1975. Married Merle Yos on February 5, 1982.

ERIC RALPH RASMUSSEN (34)

Pitcher Ht: 6-3 Wt: 205
Bats: Right Throws: Right
Age: 31 Born: 3-22-52 at Racine, Wisconsin

Became Cardinal – Originally signed by Cardinal scouts Hal Smith and Leon McGraw following his selection in the 23rd round of the June, 1973, free-agent draft. Traded to San Diego on May 26, 1978, for outfielder George Hendrick. Unconditionally released by San Diego in spring training, 1981. Signed by Yucatan club of the Mexican League in 1981. Contract assigned to Louisville by Yucatan on August 11, 1982. Called up by St. Louis on August 30.

M.L. Service – 5.109.

1982 – Rasmussen's contract was purchased by Louisville from the Yucatan Club of the Mexican League on December 8, 1981. He was invited to the Cardinals' 1982 spring training camp as a non-roster player, failed to make the club and was returned to the Yucatan Club on April 6, 1982. Recorded a 10-8 record with a 2.26 ERA and six complete games in the Mexican League before his contract was repurchased by Louisville. He appeared in four games for the Redbirds before being called up to St. Louis on August 30...Appeared in relief in three games before getting a start on September 17 vs. New York when he held off the Mets for seven innings and helped the Cards to a 3-2 win, the first of a five-game sweep in New York...Rasmussen was the winning pitcher in the Cards last regular season game, a 5-4 victory over Chicago on October 3.

Career Highlights – Was one of the Mexican League's best pitchers in 1981 posting a 12-6 record and a 2.30 ERA...Began the 1980 season in the Padre starting rotation but was used mostly in relief later and started occasionally...In 1979 Rasmussen divided time between starting and relieving. Was strong during September when he pitched shutouts in 3 of his last 5 starts for the Padres...In 1978 was 2-5 with a 4.20 ERA in 10 games for the Cardinals when he was traded on May 26 for George Hendrick. Lost his first two starts then won 8 straight...Was 11-17 in 1977 for St. Louis with complete games in each of his victories...Made auspicious major leage debut July 21, 1975 blanking Padres, 4-0.

Misc. – Graduated from Case High School (Racine, Wisc.) in 1969 and from Louisiana State University at New Orleans in 1973...Was first team NCAA All-American selectee in 1973...Selected on Gulf Coast (NL) Club All-Star Team in 1973...Tied for league lead, 1974 Texas League pitchers, in complete games and wins...Eric and his wife Lynda lives in St. Louis during the off-season. Rasmussen has one son, Michael Ian.

ANDREW JOHN RINCON (46)

Pitcher Ht: 6-3 Wt: 195
Bats: Right Throws: Right
Age: 24 Born: 3-5-59 at Pico Rivera, California

Became Cardinal – Signed by Cardinals as fifth-round selection in June, 1977, free agent draft by scout Angel Figueroa.

M.L. Service – 1.012.

1982 – Started the year with the Cardinals but struggled early and was optioned to Louisville on May 26 after posting a 2-3 record with a 4.73 ERA in 11 appearances ...Was 5-8 at Louisville with four complete games to his credit...Established himself early in his career as a hard thrower with good control but did not live up to expectations in 1982.

Career Highlights – Had a 3-1 record early in 1981 with a 1.75 ERA. Then on May 9, in his fifth appearance, he was hit by a line drive, broke the ulna in his right arm and was placed on the disabled list the next day. Was reactivated June 11, just before the strike, and optioned to Springfield. However, he never regained his winning form. He was called up on August 13, then optioned to Arkansas six days later and called up again on August 31. He suffered from pain in his back during his rehabilitation and didn't see any action on the big club after he broke his arm. Was a surprise find in September, 1980, coming up from the Cards' AA club, Arkansas, to post a 3-1 record with a 2.61 ERA. He had just helped the Travelers win the Texas League Championship with two playoff victories, including the final game against San Antonio. He was driving to the West Coast following the victory, and was intercepted by the Texas Highway Patrol to receive the news he had been called up to the St. Louis club.

In his major league debut, September 15, he pitched a 5-hitter to beat the Cubs, 5-1, then had two more one-run performances in beating Montreal 4-1 (a three hitter) and New York, 5-1, before suffering his first major league defeat, 8-0, at Montreal on October 1.

He had an abbreviated season in 1977 at Calgary because of an arm injury. In June, 1979, he pitched 38 consecutive scoreless innings for St. Petersburg, and late in the season moved up to Arkansas in time to help the Travelers win a playoff game.

Misc. – Graduated from St. Paul High School (Pico Rivera, California) in 1977.

EUGENE (GENE) LAWRENCE ROOF (29)

Outfielder Ht: 6-2 Wt: 195
Bats: Both Throws: Right
Age: 25 Born: 1-13-58 at Mayfield, Kentucky

Became Cardinal – Selected 12th by the Cardinals in June, 1976, free agent draft. Signed by scout Mo Mozzali.

M.L. Service – 0.073.

1982 – At Louisville Roof showed once again that he's a two-way ballplayer. He batted a healthy .306, knocked in 49 runs and stole 13 bases. In addition he topped all American Association outfielders with a .991 fielding percentage...Began the season with the Cardinals, and appeared in 3 games but was optioned to Louisville on April 12 when Tenace came off the disabled list. Joined the big club again on September 1 and contributed to the Cardinal cause with 4 hits, 2 stolen bases and 2 RBI during the pennant drive.

Career Highlights – Was called up from Springfield on September 2, 1981 to help the Cardinals in their pennant drive and impressed many. He batted .300 in his 60 at bats and showed solid defensive skills. Roof was used occasionally as a pinch hitter, but mostly he platooned in left field with Iorg and Landrum. His first major league hit came on 9/5 (against Jerry Reuss) in his initial major league at bat. He compiled a .348 batting average at Springfield, the best on the team and third best in the league, and he led the league in on base percentage (.452). Roof missed several weeks of action in mid-July when he injured his right ankle and was placed on the disabled list...Roof had another good minor league season in 1980, helping the Springfield Redbirds to the American Association championship...He led the Redbirds in stolen bases with 26, and was the league leader in the hit-by-pitcher department with 11....Played the 1979 season at Arkansas of Texas League...Had a fine season at AA...batted .303 with 11 homers and 53 RBI...Second on club in hits with 145. Led 1977 Appalachian League in HR (7). Selected on 1977 Appalachian League All-Star Team...Was on St. Pete disabled list May 12 to June 23, 1978 because of a broken foot.

Misc. – Is the brother of former major league catcher, Phil Roof who was named as manager of the Minnesota Twin's double-A affiliate team at Orlando during the 1982 off-season...Graduated from St. Mary (Paducah, Ky.) H.S. in 1976. Lettered in baseball and basketball. Built a batting cage in his back yard in the winter of 1981 to work on his game.

LONNIE SMITH (27)

Outfielder Ht: 5-9 Wt: 170
Bats: Right Throws: Right
Age: 27 Born: 12-22-55 at Chicago, Illinois

Became Cardinal – November 19, 1981 in three-way deal in which Cardinals acquired Smith from Philadelphia, sent pitchers Lary Sorensen and Silvio Martinez to Cleveland, and Cleveland sent catcher Bo Diaz to Philadelphia. Cleveland also acquired a player to be named later from Philadelphia.

M.L. Service – 3.079.

1982 – Without doubt Smith was the catalyst of the 1982 Redbirds. He made things happen with his consistent batting and aggressive running. Always hustling, Smith more than doubled his career stolen base total in one year as a starter and proved that he could maintain his .300 plus batting average when playing on an everyday basis. He also showed he was capable of hitting with power, collecting more doubles, triples and home runs than he had in his previous 2-1/2 years of major league play...He led the Cards in batting average, runs, hits, doubles, triples and stolen bases and was second in games played...On the league level he was 4th in batting average, 1st in runs, 2nd in stolen bases, 5th in hits and triples and 6th in doubles...Among the many highlights of Smith's season were: stealing five bases in one game (9/4) to tie a modern National League Record, reaching the 100 career stolen base level and hitting his first ever grand-slam home run and his first inside-the-park round-tripper...Started the season in center field but was moved to left field when David Green and Willie McGee proved they could handle centerfield...Smith had the Cardinals' longest batting streak of the year, 17 games.

Career Highlights – Smith had a .321 batting average for just under 2½ major league seasons, and has stolen 60 bases, including setting a record for Philadelphia rookies with 33 SB in 1980. He batted .600 in the 1980 League Championship Series against Houston and .263 in the World Series vs. Kansas City. In 1981, he played all three outfield positions, replacing Garry Maddox in center field in the late-season going. He hit safely in the final 23 games of the year to tie Art Howe of Houston for the longest such streak in the league for 1981. He was 82-34 .415 during that string, bringing his average from .245 to .324.

He averaged .309 and 39 steals in six minor league years, and his 21 assists led all American Association outfielders in 1978.

Awards/Honors – Chosen Rookie of the Year in 1980 by The Sporting News and Baseball Digest, and finished third in the BBWAA balloting...In 1982 he was elected to the National League's All-Star team and voted to both United Press International's and The Sporting News' post-season All-Star teams...He was the National League's Player of the Week for August 30-September 5.

Misc. – Lonnie and his wife Pearl (Jeter) have two children. A girl, Yaritza LaVonne, born 6/17/81, and a boy, Eric Tramaine, born 3/16/80.

OSBORNE (OZZIE) EARL SMITH (1)

Shortstop Ht: 5-10 Wt: 150
Bats: Both Throws: Right
Age: 28 Born: 12-26-54 at Mobile, Alabama

Became Cardinal – Acquired February 10, 1982, in a trade with San Diego for Garry Templeton.

M.L. Service – 5.000.

1982 – In 1982 Smith surely must have set a record for standing ovations given in a season to a defensive performer. A hit from the day he arrived in St. Louis, Cardinal fans cheered the acrobatic shortstop time after time as he executed diving stops and backhand grabs and still found time to throw runners out. He was the N.L's best shortstop on a percentage basis, won his third straight Gold Glove and led the league in assists for the fourth straight year...Not only did he maintain his level of performance on the field, but Ozzie also emerged as a solid hitter after working with Cardinal coaches at spring training on developing his swing to take advantage of Busch's artificial turf. He notched the most doubles of his career and increased his major league home run total to three by sending two out of the park...Swift and smart around the bases, Ozzie continued to steal basis with more than an 80% rate of success...After missing only 13 games in his first four major league seasons, Smith was sidelined for 18 days late in the year due to a hematoma of his right thigh...Smith set a 7-game World Series record for most putouts by a shortstop with 22.

Career Highlights – In 1981 Smith maintained his level of near perfect performances in the field; his .976 fielding percentage was best in the league. In addition he led the National League in chances with 658 and in games played with 110. Ozzie capped a sensational defensive season at shortstop in 1980 by winning his first Gold Glove after setting a new major league record for assists by a shortstop...Ozzie set the new mark September 26 vs. Dodgers when he surpassed a mark Pittsburgh's Glenn Wright had established in 1924. Wright's mark was 60 assists and Oz finished the season with 62...Ozzie's .974 fielding average was the best in the NL of those shortstops who play on natural fields...Overall, Tim Foli (.981) and Dave Concepcion (.978) finished ahead of Ozzie, but Oz had 307 more chances than Foli and 201 more chances than Concepcion...Ozzie also participated in more double plays than any other NL shortstop...He may have set the stage for his season by handling 16 total chances, including 12 assists, April 12 vs. the Giants in San Diego. He joined with Gene Richards and Jerry Mumphrey to become the first trio in NL history to all steal 50 bases in the same season – Smith (57), Richards (61), Mumphrey (52)...In 1979 his .976 fielding percentage was exceeded by only Larry Bowa and Tim Foli and he handled 150 more chances than either of those players...He also led the Padres in stolen bases (28) and sacrifice hits (22) and was 2nd on the club in runs scored (77) and games played (156)...Was the NL's 5th toughest hitter to fan in 1979 (1 every 17.54 AB)...He became the Padres regular shortstop in 1978 after only 68 games of professional experience at Walla Walla of the Rookie Northwest League in 1977...Had tremendous rookie season... Was runner-up to Atlanta's Bob Horner for Rookie of the Year honors...Played in 159 of the Padres 162 games, leading the league in sacrifice hits with 28 and finishing 4th in stolen bases with 40...Was drafted by Padres in June, 1977 draft and played at Walla Walla, batting .303...Hit .323 during the off-season in the Arizona Instructional League and it was there he caught the eye of Padre brass.

Awards/Honors – Has been awarded three consecutive Gold Glove awards by The Sporting News (1980-81-82)...Elected to the 1982 National League All-Star Team...Voted to United Press International's and also The Sporting News N.L. post-season All-Star Team...In 1979 he toured Japan with the National League All-Stars on a post-season trip (along with Cardinal pitcher Bob Forsch).

Misc. – He and wife Denise have one child, Osborne Earl Jr., born on 4/28/82...A panel of California fashion experts named Ozzie as one of the 10 best casually dressed men of America in 1982 along with such notables as Alexander Haig and Johnny Carson ...Had a season long bet with Whitey Herzog on his performance at the plate. If Ozzie struck out or hit the ball up in the air, he owed Herzog $1. If he walked or hit the ball on the ground, Herzog owed Smith $1. Smith was the winner of the bet by a large margin!...Graduated from California State Poly (San Luis Obispo) where he had a fine collegiate career. He played for an All-Star college club between his junior and senior years, and went with them to Taiwan for an international tournament. The team wound up in second place with Smith being named the tournament's MVP...Played ball with Lonnie Smith as teenagers in Los Angeles.

JOHN ANTON STUPER (48)

Pitcher Ht: 6-2 Wt: 200
Bats: Right Throws: Right
Age: 25 (Turns 26 on May 9) Born: 5-9-57 at Butler, Pennsylvania

Became Cardinal – January 25, 1979, in a minor league deal with the Pittsburgh Pirates organization in exchange for infielder Tommy Sandt.

M.L. Service – 0.128.

1982 – Was the surprise find of the 1982 pitching staff...A hard-throwing, strong-armed pitcher, Stuper earned a spot on the 40-man roster for the second year in a row, but again left spring training at the AAA level. He turned in an impressive performance at Louisville, going 7-1 with a 1.46 ERA; and qualifying him for recall on May 28 when Andy Rincon was sent out on option...Was thrown into the starting rotation five days after his arrival. His first two appearances were no-decision starts. He collared his first major league win on June 18 in a seven inning 5-4 performance vs. New York...Another highlight of his year was a 3-2 victory in Los Angels over Fernando Velenzuela; only the second time the Cardinals beat the lefthander in six decisions...His 53 strikeouts were the lowest of any starter on the team...Turned in strong performances in the playoffs and World Series...Started Game #2 of the LCS, a 4-3 win, started Game 2 of the World Series, a 5-4 win and won Game 6 of the World Series, 13-1. Became only the 47th rookie to start a World Series game and the 14th to start two...His showing in Game 6 was remarkable. With the Cards down, 3-2, in games, he held the Brewers scoreless for 8 innings and stayed on the mound over a five-hour period through a rain delayed game that St. Louis won, 13-1.

Career Highlights – In 1981 John didn't have the year he was expected to, but he continued to show great potential. John earned a chance at the major leagues with a remarkable record in 1980, an earned run average of 2.41 in 127 minor league innings at St. Petersburg and Arkansas...Although he was only 1-4 in won-lost record at St. Pete, he moved up to Arkansas without a hitch and was 7-2 there... His strikeout total for the year, in which he was used mainly in relief, was 85.

Misc. – Tied a World Series record with two wild pitches in Game 2 and tied a record with three for the Series...Found his way into the record books on June 22 in a complete game 3-2 win over Philadelphia when Pete Rose connected for his 3,772nd career hit off the rookie...An articulate individual, Stuper majored in journalism in college. He attended Butler Community College (1975-77), Point Park College (1977-79) and graduated from LaRoche College (1979-80)...Had a 34-3 record as a college pitcher and was an All-District and Honorable Mention All-American at Point Park...He also played basketball for two years at Butler and was an all-conference choice...Graduated from Butler, PA., High School in 1975 having lettered in baseball and basketball.

HOWARD BRUCE SUTTER (42)

Pitcher Ht: 6-2 Wt: 190
Bats: Right Throws: Right
Age: 30 Born: 1-8-53 at Lancaster, Pennsylvania

Became Cardinal – December 9, 1980. In exchange for third basemen Ken Reitz and Ty Waller and outfielder-first baseman Leon Durham. Signed by Ralph DiLullo.

M.L. Service – 6.148.

1982 – Sutter once again proved to be one of the premier relief pitchers in baseball, winning or saving almost half of the Cardinals wins in 1982 (45 of 92). His league leading 36 saves fell one short of the N.L. record for saves which he set in 1979 with Chicago...After struggling through the month of June when he was 3-4 with 3 saves and a 6.11 ERA, Sutter found his touch again and was overpowering through the stretch. In August he was 1-1 with 9 saves and an 0.87 ERA and at one point in September, he collected one victory and five saves in six scoreless appearances...Had three saves and two victories in post-season play...Was knocked out of action for 10 days around the All-Star break when he strained muscles in his left groin...His most dramatic save of the year came on September 14 when the Cards and the Phillies met in Philadelphia. St. Louis was leading 2-0 in the bottom of the eighth when Philadelphia loaded the bases. With one out, Sutter got Mike Schmidt to ground into a 1-2-3 double play, ending the Phils' surge and giving the Cards a 1/2 game lead over Philadelphia, a lead St. Louis never relinquished... Underwent arthroscopic surgery on December 8 in order to repair cartilage damage to his left knee.

Career Highlights – He single-handedly saved almost as many games (25) in strike-shortened 1981 as the entire bullpen did in 1980 (27). Sutter was probably the most important reason the Cardinals were so successful in 1981. His split-fingered fastball earned him his fifth consecutive All-Star game selection and won Sutter his second Rolaids' Relief Pitcher of the Year Award...Sutter's 1980 performance was on a par with his other major league years in which he mastered the National League with his split-fingered ball...In 1980, he was 5-8 with 28 saves (the NL high)... In 102 innings, over 60 relief appearances, he allowed only 90 hits, had 76 strikeouts, 34 walks and an ERA of 2.65.

Awards/Honors – Has been selected as a member of the National League All-Star squad in five of his six full major league seasons. He was injured and was not selected in 1982, but he was the winning pitcher in 1978 and 1979 and earned saves in 1980 and 1981. He was selected in 1977 but did not participate because of injury. Only Lefty Gomez (with 3) has more All-Star game victories...He was named the National League's Rolaids' Relief Pitcher of the Year in 1982 duplicating his accomplishments of 1981 and 1979. He was also selected as The Sporting News' Fireman of the Year in 1982 and 1980...Was twice named N.L. Player of the Week in 1982 (August 23-29 and September 13-19)...His 37 saves in 1979, which with 6 victories earned him the Cy Young Award, tied the National League season record held by Clay Carroll (1972) and Rollie Fingers (1978)...Was a member of 1982's U.P.I. post-season All-Star team.

ANDREW J. VAN SLYKE (18)

Outfielder Ht: 6-1 Wt: 190
Bats: Left Throws: Right
Age: 22 Born: 12-21-60 at Utica, New York

Became Cardinal – Selected by Cardinals in first round of the regular phase of the June, 1979, free agent draft. Signed by scouts Roland Johnson and Bart Shelly.

M.L. Service – 0.000.

1982 – Had a good year both offensively and defensively in his first year at the AA level. Led the Texas League in triples with 11; and led the Arkansas Travelers with 37 stolen bases...An aggressive hitter with power, he was one of the team's leading hitters, batting .279 with 16 home runs and 70 RBI...He is considered a good defensive centerfielder with an above average arm and rates as one of the Cardinals' brighter prospects in the minor leagues.

Career Highlights – Graduated from New Hartford, N.Y. High School in 1979 where he lettered in football, basketball and baseball. Selected for the New York State Empire Games in basketball. All-State and All-American in baseball his senior year. Injured his hand in final high school game in 1979 and was sidelined for the entire 1979 professional season.

Misc. – Played baseball with the Mayaguez team in the Puerto Rican winter league this off-season.

NON-ROSTER PLAYERS
INVITED TO SPRING TRAINING

STEPHEN RUSSELL BRAUN (26)

Infielder-Outfielder Ht: 5-10 Wt: 180
Bats: Left Throws: Right
Age: 34 (Turns 35 on May 8) Born: 5-8-48 at Trenton, New Jersey

Became Cardinal – March 3, 1981. Signed Springfield, Ill., contract as free agent.

M.L. Service – 12.000

1982 – Braun defied odds for the second year in a row by earning a spot on the team's 25-man roster after reporting to spring training in 1981 and 1982 as a non-roster invitee and is trying to make it three in a row...In 1982 he served as one of the team's top left-handed pinch hitters. For the second year in a row, Braun finished the year as the Cardinals' most active pinch hitter. He took more trips to the plate and collected more hits as a substitute than anyone else on the team. He also coaxed more walks in the pinch hitter role than any other...During one stretch in September he hit safely in 6 of 8 pinch hit appearances...Showed the ability to play wherever he was needed. When Oberkfell was on the disabled list on Opening Day, Braun picked up the third baseman's glove, which he hadn't worn on a regular basis since 1973, and took the field with the Cardinal front-liners. He also got a start in lieft field during the year...Got the game winning RBI in Game 2 of the World Series. With the score tied 4-4 in the bottom of the eighth and the bases loaded, Braun walked on four pitches to force in the winning run and give the Cards' their first win of the series, 5-4.

Career Highlights – Joined the Cardinals in spring training of 1981 as a free agent, and signed a contract at the start of the season. Was used as a left-handed pinch hitter and took more trips to the plate than any one else on the team. He went 5-25 (.200) and drew 9 walks in that role. Saw occasional outfield service including a start on 8/18 vs. Montreal (his first start since 1979) in which he made several outstanding defensive plays...Has proved to be a solid hitter throughout his career and has been used mostly as a utility player and pinch hitter in recent years...Began his pro career in Minnesota where he played for six years appearing in 100 or more games in each campaign with the Twins. He was selected Minnesota's outstanding rookie in 1971 by virtue of his .254 average over 128 games and was also named to the Topps' major league All-Rookie Team that year....Went from Minnesota to Seattle in 1977 and contributed to the young Mariners' offensive attack while seeing the most service of his career (139 games) and showing solid defensive skills in the outfield by tying for the club high in assists (11)....Acquired by Kansas City in 1978 and saw considerable action in the outfield and also played at 3rd base.... Was moved into the lead-off spot the final month of '78 while holding down regular duties against righthanded pitchers....Was Royals' top pinch-hitter for two years....Spent part of 1980 season with Toronto Blue Jays.

Misc. – Steve is married to the former Diane Kalbunole. They have two children; a six year old girl, Erin Laine; and a four year old boy, Stephen Blair.

Catcher Ht: 6-0 Wt: 185
Bats: Left Throws: Right
Age: 26 (Turns 27 on September 7) Born: 9-7-56 at Canovanas, Puerto Rico

Became Cardinal – Selected in major league draft from Oklahoma City at winter meetings, 1980.

M.L. Service – 1.078.

1982 – Began the season with the Cardinals in St. Louis but was optioned to Louisville on June 22 when Steve Braun came off the disabled list. He appeared in 26 games for the Cards, starting 6 contests behind the plate and collecting 3 RBI. Was credited with the game winning RBI in an April 24 game with Philadelphia that extended the St. Louis winning streak to twelve games, the team's longest streak since 1943.

Career Highlights – In his first year in the majors in 1981 Orlando contributed to the cause as part of the starting battery on several occasions, especially during the first half when Porter was on the disabled list, and he showed much improvement behind the plate. He also was used as a left-handed pinch hitter. In that limited role, he batted over .300 and succeeded in bringing in some game winning runs... his first big league hit came on 5/7 against Phil Niekro. The highlight of his season was an 11th inning leadoff triple on June 3 that led to Sanchez scoring the winning run in a 3-2 win over the Expos...Sanchez was selected for possible use as a back-up catcher by the Cardinals in the major league draft after batting .307 at Oklahoma City in 1980...He had a .319 average as a designated hitter and also played the outfield. He was originally signed by scout Nino Escalera of the New York Mets in 1974, and moved to the Philadelphia Phillies' organization in 1978 following his release by the Mets...Attended Luis Herniz Vernone High School in Puerto Rico.

FARM SYSTEM MANAGERS

JIM FREGOSI — LOUISVILLE

Jim Fregosi returns to baseball after a year and a half absence. He will manage the Cardinals' AAA affiliate in Louisville. In 1982 the Redbirds took Louisville by storm, setting a new all-time minor league attendance record by drawing 868,418 fans to Cardinal Stadium.

Fregosi takes over a team that was in the championship race until the day before the season ended. The Redbirds lost on August 28 to the eventual American Association champs, Indianapolis, Ind. and finished the season in second place, 1½ games out.

Fregosi managed the California Angels for all or parts of four years from 1978 through 1981, posting a 237-248 record; the second highest win total by an Angels' manager. The Angels produced their top season to date in his first full year with California, 1979, setting a team record 88 wins and earning the first division championship in club history.

A former shortstop, Fregosi's playing career spanned 18 major league seasons and included all-star recognition six times and one Gold Glove. He still holds numerous Angel career records and in 1969 was selected the all-time greatest Angel by a vote of the fans.

The forty-year-old Fregosi is married to the former Janet Bennett. They live in Orange County, Cal., and have two children, Jimmy, 18 and Jennifer, 11. For the past year and a half Fregosi has been in private business running his own food brokerage business. He will retain his business interests while managing at Louisville.

NICK LEYVA — ARKANSAS

Nick Leyva begins his sixth season as a minor league manager for the Cardinal organization. He started the 1982 season at St. Petersburg but was promoted to Arkansas on June 3, replacing Gaylen Pitts. Arkansas finished the season with a 68-68 record. The Travellers were third in the first half and second in the second half.

Arkansas proved to be a tough team to beat at home; under Leyva the AA affiliate went 30-13 in Little Rock. The team increased their attendance by 10,962 over the 1981 season and showed a profit for the 7th straight year.

In 1981 Leyva was the manager of the St. Petersburg Cardinals for the second year in a row. His team was 33-36 in the first half, finishing in third place but turned things around and posted a 36-27 record in the second half to finish ½ game out of first.

In 1978 and 1979, he finished second and fifth, respectively, at Johnson City, while in 1980 at Gastonia, he was third and second in the two halves of the season.

The 29-year-old ended his career as an active player with the Arkansas club in 1977.

Leyva signed with the Cardinals as an infielder after being selected 24th by the club in the June, 1975 free agent draft. He was named to the N.A.I.A. All-American squad in 1975 while attending LaVerne College in California. Nick broke in with Sarasota in 1975 and ended the season at St. Petersburg. He split the 1976 campaign between St. Pete and Arkansas.

JIM RIGGLEMAN — ST. PETERSBURG

In his first full year as a major league manager, Jim Riggleman will be heading up the Cardinals A affiliate in St. Petersburg. Riggleman's first shot at managing came midway through the 1982 season when he became field manager of the St. Petersburg Cardinals on June 4, replacing Nick Leyva who had been moved up to Arkansas.

The Cardinals were 34-34 in the first half of the season and 35-30 in the second, finishing second in each half.

Prior to being called on to manage, Riggleman was serving as a coach for the AAA Louisville Redbirds. A Cardinal farm hand for six years, Riggleman began his coaching career in 1981 when he acted as a player-coach for the Arkansas Travellers for the first part of the campaign and then retired from his playing career in May to concentrate on coaching.

His best year as a player came in 1980 when he batted .295 and hit 21 home runs for the Arkansas Travellers. The third baseman was selected on both the 1980 Topps Chewing Gum National Association Class AA All-Star team and the Texas League's All-Star team. He played in the Los Angeles Dodger organization from 1974 until 1976.

Riggleman, age 30, is a graduate of Frostburg State College with a major in physical education. He lives in Rockville, Maryland.

During the offseason, Riggleman works as a substitute teacher on the high school level. He also coached at the Jim Rice Baseball School this past winter.

DAVE BIALAS — SPRINGFIELD

Dave Bialas made his debut as a manager a very successful one. In 1982, he directed the Springfield Cardinals to a first place finish in the Central Division of the Midwest League with an 83-53 record, the best regular season record the Springfield team had posted in five years in professional baseball.

Although the role of manager was a new one for Bialas, he was a familiar face in the city of Springfield. He spent all or parts of four seasons as a player in Springfield when it was the Cardinals' AAA affiliate. Bialas spent a total of nine years as a Cardinal farm hand playing first base and in the outfield while notching a .274 career batting average.

The 29-year-old also served as a designated hitter for the Cardinals in 1982. He collected 21 hits and 10 RBI on his way to a .308 average as a DH.

During the off-season Bialas lives in Bellaire, Texas. He is married and has a son.

LLOYD MERRITT — MACON

Lloyd Merritt returns for his second year as the manager of the Cardinals' South Atlantic League A Team. This season, however, he'll take the helm at Macon, Georgia, a site that replaces Gastonia, N.C., in the Cardinal organization. At Gastonia, Merritt's club finished the season with a 54-89 record overall.

Merritt renewed his association with baseball as the manager of the Gastonia Cardinals in 1981 after spending considerable time in private business. Merritt started his baseball affiliation in 1951 as a pitcher for the Yankees' Joplin farm club. He made it to the major leagues with the Cardinals in 1957, and was on the roster again the following year although he was traded before he saw any action during the season.

Merritt continued to pitch in the minor leagues until 1960, then was a member of the Cardinals' batting practice pitching staff for three years. He performed as a scout for the Atlanta Braves in 1964 and 1965.

His next connection with baseball with his position as a pitching instructor at the "Show-Me" Baseball Camp in Branson, Mo. The 49-year-old native St. Louisan went to Beaumount High School and is a graduate of the University of Missouri.

RICH HACKER — JOHNSON CITY

Rich Hacker began his career as a manager in the Cardinals' system in 1982 with the Johnson City club in the Appalachian State League. He led the rookie level club to a 32-35 record, tops in the league.

the 35-year-old was hired in November, 1981, to fill a dual role as a manager in the system and as a special assignment scout for the Cardinals.

Hacker's first connection with St. Louis was in 1965 when he was drafted by the Cardinals, although he never signed with the team. A graduate of Southern Illinois University-Carbondale, he was drafted and signed by the New York Mets in 1966. As a shortstop he played briefly in the majors for the Montreal Expos in 1971 before returning to their farm system.

Hacker was a midwest area scout for the Toronto Blue Jays in 1981. He worked in the same capacity for the San Diego Padres for two years prior to that.

Hacker resides in Belleville, Illinois with his wife and two sons. He is the nephew of major league pitcher, Warren Hacker, and he was born in New Athens, Illinois, the hometown of Whitey Herzog.

JOE RIGOLI — ERIE

Joe Rigoli returns to manage the Erie Cardinals for the second year in a row. In 1982 his Erie rookie team held first place on July 29 with a 20-19 record but stumbled and wound up at 35-38 in third place, five games back.

Rigoli, was a new addition to the Cardinals' minor league staff in 1981 when he managed the Gastonia club for St. Louis. The Cardinals won 13 of their first 20 games, putting them in first place, then went on a 6-game losing streak. They finished the first half at 37-35, in second place, but slipped to 31-41 in the second half and a fourth place finish.

A native of Monsey, N.Y., he was signed out of Fairleigh-Dickinson College of Teaneck, N.J., in 1978 to a contract as a catcher with the Oakland A's farm at Bend, Oregon. However, midway in the season, he was moved up to the A's to serve as bullpen catcher under manager Jack McKeon.

In 1979, he was a player-coach for Newark, N.Y., in the New York-Penn League and in 1980 he became baseball coach at Ramapo College of Mahwah, N.Y. While at Ramapo, in 1980 and 1981, he was also a teacher of mathematics, a subject in which he received his bachelor of science degree from Fairleigh-Dickinson.

JOHNNY LEWIS — HITTING INSTRUCTOR

Johnny Lewis is playing yet another role for the Cardinals and this year is in his second season as a hitting coach for the Cardinal farm clubs. He had spent the previous three years managing in the system.

Lewis started his St. Louis career in 1959 as an outfielder. He saw major league service with the Cardinals and Mets. While with the Mets, he hit a 10th inning home run to break up a no-hitter by the Reds' Jim Maloney in 1965. Lewis retired after the 1968 season.

He worked in the Cardinal front office as assistant promotions and sales director for two years, and was farm system administrative assistant in 1972. He joined the Cardinals' coaching staff in March, 1973, and remained for five years until he began managing at Calgary in 1977 and 1978. He managed the Cardinals' Gastonia team in 1979 and ran their Johnson City entry for two years after that.

Lewis, 42, was born in Greenville, Ala., and lives in Atlanta, Ga.

DAROLD KNOWLES — PITCHING INSTRUCTOR

Darold Knowles, who spent the last two seasons of his long and successful major league pitching career with the Cardinals, moved into the coaching area for the first time in 1981 as a pitcher instructor.

In his 15-year career as a reliever (he appeared in 775 games, major league record for left-handers, and started only 8), he won 66, lost 74 and had 143 saves. He pitched for eight major league clubs, and was a member of the Oakland teams that won four divisional titles, three pennants and three World Series (1972-3-4). He is the only major league pitcher to appear in seven games in one World Series...He did that in 1973 against the Mets, and had saves in games 1 and 7.

BOB MILLIKEN — PITCHING INSTRUCTOR

Bob Milliken returns for his seventh year in his second term as a farm system pitching instructor for the Cardinals. 'Bo' also served as the organization's pitching instructor from 1971-75 and then became a pitching coach in 1976 for St. Louis. He was the Red Birds' bullpen coach from 1965-70.

Milliken was an active player for 15 years. He played in the Dodger organization from 1947-59. He contributed an 8-4 record as long relief man for the pennant-winning Dodger club in 1953, and pitched against the Yankees in the World Series. He joined the Cardinal organization in 1960 and pitched for Red Bird farm club at Memphis, Atlanta and Charleston.

Bob pitched batting practice for the Cardinals in 1963 and '64.

1982 NATIONAL LEAGUE CHAMPIONSHIP SERIES RESULTS

GAME #1

THURSDAY, OCTOBER 7

BUSCH STADIUM

Rained forced the postponement of Wednesday's original N.L. Championship Series start after only 4½ innings and knocked out starters Andujar and Niekro. Forsch took the mount against Perez on Thursday and led the Cardinals to their first post-season victory since 1968. Forsch hurled a three-hit shutout in a 7-0 triump over the Braves. St. Louis jumped off to a 1-0 lead in the third inning after McGee lined a shot into the right field corner and looked like he would cross the plate on an inside-the-park home run. He lost sight of the ball, however, and surprisingly stopped at third. Ozzie Smith's sacrifice fly scored the rookie. In the sixth inning the Redbirds erupted for five hits and five runs, both LCS records for one inning.

GAME #2

SATURDAY, OCTOBER 9

BUSCH STADIUM

A rainout of Friday's game pushed the second series game back to Saturday night, but didn't dampen the Cardinals' momentum. Down 3-1 after five innings, the Cardinals picked up one in the sixth when Hernandez singled and scored on Porter's double. The Redbirds then tied the game in the 8th on a run-scoring fielder's choice grounder by McGee. The Cards won it 4-3 in the bottom of the ninth. Green opened the frame with a single, advanced to second on Herr's sacrifice and scored on Oberkfell's single that barely cleared Butler's grasp on center-field.

GAME #3

SUNDAY, OCTOBER 10

FULTON COUNTY STADIUM

On to Atlanta where the Cardinals took command in the second and never looked back. McGee drilled a two-run triple to highlight a four-run second inning and added a solo-homer in the ninth to help St. Louis to a 6-2 triumph and a 3-game sweep of the Braves. The victory marked the Cardinals first pennant win since 1968.

1982 WORLD SERIES RESULTS

GAME #1

TUESDAY, OCTOBER 12

BUSCH STADIUM

It was Milwaukee all the way as the Cardinals fell, 10-0. Molitor collected a record five hits off Cardinal pitchers, who gave up 17 hits in the contest. Yount added four hits for good measure. Caldwell pitched a three-hit shutout to quiet the sell-out crowd of 53,723 at the series opener.

GAME #2

WEDNESDAY, OCTOBER 13

BUSCH STADIUM

The Cardinals showed that the series wasn't a mismatch. The teams battled to a 4-4 tie after six innings to set up the deciding eighth inning. Reliever Ladd walked Lonnie Smith in the bottom of the inning to load the bases and then walked pinch hitter Steve Braun on four straight pitches to force in the winning run, 5-4. Molitor represented the tying run in the ninth inning but was thrown out stealing by Porter with the help of a great tag by Herr.

GAME #3

FRIDAY, OCTOBER 15

MILWAUKEE COUNTY STADIUM

A 6-2 Cardinal win that will be remembered as the Willie McGee show. The rookie robbed Molitor and Thomas of home runs with leaping catches at the wall and also knocked in four runs with a pair of homers. Andujar had shut out the Brewers on three hits but was carried off the field in the seventh after Simmons' line drive struck him in the right kneecap.

GAME #4

SATURDAY, OCTOBER 16

MILWAUKEE COUNTY STADIUM

It was the first day game of the Series but things were dark for the Cardinals. St. Louis was holding a 5-1 lead in the seventh when LaPoint covered first on an easy grounder by Oglivie but dropped the throw from Hernandez. That opened the floodgates and the Brewers went on to score 6 runs in the inning en route to a 7-5 triumph that knotted the series at two wins each.

GAME #6

TUESDAY, OCTOBER 19

BUSCH STADIUM

Because of two heavy rain storms, it took five hours to complete the sixth game but to Cardinal fans the wait was well worth it. Stuper became only the second rookie to start two World Series games. He impressed all with a four-hit complete game 13-1 victory that evened the Series at three games each. Designated hitter Iorg boosted his batting average to .500 with a triple and two doubles and became the first DH ever to get three extra-base hits in one World Series Game.

The Cardinals came from behind to defeat the Brewers, 6-3, for their first World Series Championship in 15 years. St. Louis was down, 3-1, in the bottom of the sixth with one out when O. Smith started the comeback with a single. L. Smith doubled him over to third and Tenace followed with a pinch-hit walk, loading the bases for Hernandez. He celebrated his 29th birthday with a 2-run single to tie the game. Hendrick put the Redbirds in the lead for good with an RBI single. The Cards picked up two insurance runs in the eighth and then watched as Sutter set the Brewers down in order to preserve the win and give St. Louis the World Series crown.

THE CARDINALS' WORLD SERIES STORY . . .
YEAR BY YEAR

1926 – The Cardinals defeated the Yankees, four games to three, to win their first world championship. Grover Cleveland Alexander, obtained by the Red Birds in a midseason trade with the Chicago Cubs, won the second and sixth games, then came on to save the seventh.

1928 – Babe Ruth and Lou Gehrig paced the Yankees to a four-game sweep of the Cardinals. Ruth hit .625 for the Series and had three home runs in one game, and Gehrig had a .545 batting average. Four of Gehrig's six hits were home runs, and he had nine runs-batted-in.

1930 – Connie Mack's Philadelphia Athletics defeated the Cardinals, four games to two, as the Red Birds hit only .200 and the Athletics .197. Cardinal victories were scored by Bill Hallahan, 5-0, in the third game, and Jesse Haines, 3-1, in the fourth.

1931 – The Cardinals got revenge on the Athletics, defeating Philadelphia, four games to three. Pepper Martin, the Wild Horse of the Osage, paced the Red Birds, stealing five bases, collecting 12 hits and hitting .500. Bill Hallahan and Burleigh Grimes each pitched two victories for the Cardinals.

1934 – The "Gas-House Gang" won the National League pennant on the final day of the season, then defeated Detroit in the Series, four games to three. Dizzy and Paul Dean, who combined to win 49 games during the regular season, each won two games over the Tigers. The final game of the Series, won by the Cardinals, 11-0, was marked by Commissioner K. M. Landis order Joe (Ducky) Medwick from the game. Medwick had collided with Tiger third baseman Marvin Owen in the sixth inning, and his actions so infuriated the Detroit fans that they bombarded Ducky with fruit, vegetables and debris when he went to his position in left field in the seventh inning. Landis removed Medwick to halt the disturbance.

1942 – The Cardinals lost the first game of the Series to the Yankees, then roared back to win four straight. Rookie pitcher Johnny Beazley won two games; lefthander Ernie White shut out the Yankees in the third game, and third baseman Whitey Kurowski hit a decisive triple in the second game, then clinched the finale with a two-run home run in the ninth inning.

1943 – The Yankees evened their World Series record against the Cardinals at 2-2 as they defeated the Red Birds, four games to one. The key play of the Series occurred in the third game. With the Cardinals holding a 2-1 lead in the eighth inning, Johnny Lindell crashed into Whitey Kurowski at third on a sacrifice bunt and jarred the baseball loose from Kurowski's hand. Billy Johnson then tripled to drive in three runs, the Yankees went on to score five times in the inning and Manager Joe McCarthy's powerhouse coasted to victory. The New York Yankees also won the next two games to take the championship.

1944 – In this only all-St. Louis World Series, pitching dominated and the Cardinals defeated the Browns, four games to two. The pitchers struck out a record total of 92 batters, 49 of them by Cardinal moundsmen and 43 by the Browns' hurlers. Emil Verban topped Cardinal hitters with a .412 average.

1946 – Harry (The Cat) Brecheen won three games and the Cardinals topped the Boston Red Sox, four games to three. With the score tied 3-3 in the last half of the eighth inning of the seventh game, Enos Slaughter singled, then scored all the way from first on Harry Walker's hit to left center, a sprint that surprised relay man Johnny Pesky of the Red Sox and allowed Slaughter to score the winning run.

1964 – A team victory for the Cardinals, who defeated the Yankees, four games to three. Bob Gibson won two games; Ken Boyer hit a grand-slam home run to win the fourth game; Tim McCarver, who topped Cardinal hitters in the Series with a .478 average smashed a 10th inning home run to win the fifth game, and Ron Taylor and Roger Craig contributed valuable relief help.

1967 – Bob Gibson pitched three complete-game victories and Lou Brock put on one of the finest offensive displays in World Series history as the Cardinals defeated the Boston Red Sox, four games to three. Gibson limited the Red Sox to only 14 hits in the three games, and Brock topped all Series hitters with a .414 batting average. Lou also set a Series record by stealing seven bases, and Roger Maris hit .385 and drove in seven runs, a Cardinal Series record.

1968 – The Cardinals had a three-game-to-one lead, but the Detroit Tigers stormed back to win the last three contests and claim their first world championship in 23 years. Lefthander Mickey Lolich, a motorcycle enthusiast who played in the shadow of 31-game winner Denny McLain all year, was superb for the Tigers as he won three games, including the 4-1 finale. Bob Gibson won two games for the Red Birds, and set records by striking out 17 batters in the first game and a total of 35 for the Series, breaking the mark of 31 he set against the Yankees in 1964.

1982 – The Cardinals came back from a 3-2 deficit in games to defeat the Milwaukee Brewers and bring the World Series Championship Trophy back to St. Louis for the first time in 15 years. Joaquin Andujar nailed down two victories and posted a 1.35 ERA while Bruce Sutter was credited with one win and two saves. John Stuper became only the 14th rookie to start two World Series games, winning the crucial sixth game for the Redbirds in a rain delayed contest that took five hours to complete. Dane Iorg batted .529 and tied a series record for most hits by a designated hitter. Rookie Willie McGee turned heads by hitting two home runs and making two spectacular catches in one game. Darrell Porter was named series MVP on the strength of his timely hitting and solid defense.

OTHER CARDINAL HISTORICAL HIGHLIGHTS . . .

1876 St. Louis became a charter member of the National League, then withdrew after the 1877 season.

1892 St. Louis back in the NL. The team was called the Browns, later became the Perfectos.

1899 The ballclub changed the team nickname from Perfectos to Cardinals.

1920 Team moved from Robison Field to Sportsman's Park.

1922 Rogers Hornsby won the triple crown with 42 home runs, 152 RBI's and a .401 batting average.

1924 Hornsby won the National League batting title with a .424 average, highest mark in the circuit since 1900.

1925 Hornsby again won the triple crown with 39 home runs, 143 RBI's and a .403 average.

1937 Joe (Ducky) Medwick won the triple crown with 31 home runs, 154 RBI's and a .374 batting average.

1940 First night game in St. Louis for Browns and then Cardinals. Johnny Mize set a St. Louis home run record of 43.

1946 Home paid attendance topped one million for the first time.

1948 Stan Musial won his third National League Most Valuable Player award and led the league in virtually every batting department – average (.376); runs (135); hits (230); total bases (429); doubles (46); triples (18); runs-batted-in (131); and slugging percentage (.702).

1950 Cardinals played the first night opener in St. Louis.

1953 Anheuser-Busch, Inc., bought the Cardinals, then renovated Sportsman's Park and renamed it Busch Stadium.

1954 Musial hit five home runs in a doubleheader against the Giants at Busch Stadium on May 2.

1957 Musial established a National League endurance record when he extended his streak of consecutive games played to 895 before an injury forced him to the bench. The mishap occurred at Philadelphia on Aug. 22 when he tore a muscle and chipped a bone in his shoulder blade as he swung and missed a high, outside pitch. He won the batting title with a .351 average.

1958 Musial, pinch hitting in the sixth inning, collected a double against the Cubs at Wrigley Field in Chicago on May 13, and that dramatic blow was the 3,000th hit of his career.

1962 Musial, nearing his 42nd birthday, made a solid bid for his eighth batting title as he hit .330, but Tommy Davis of the Los Angeles Dodgers won the crown with a .346 mark.

1963 Musial, who won seven National League batting titles in his 22-year career with the Cardinals and had a lifetime average of .331, announced his retirement. His famous No. 6 became the first Cardinal number to be retired.

OTHER CARDINAL HISTORICAL HIGHLIGHTS . . .

1966 The Cardinals closed old Busch Stadium on May 8 with a 10-5 loss to the San Francisco Giants. On May 12, they opened the new Busch Memorial Stadium in downtown St. Louis by defeating the Atlanta Braves, 4-3, in 12 innings. The winning run scored when Lou Brock singled with the bases loaded, driving in Curt Flood. The winning pitcher was Don Dennis, the loser Phil Niekro. Mike Shannon got the first Cardinal hit, a first-inning single and Atlanta's Felipe Alou hit two home runs.

1967 Home paid attendance went over the two million mark for the first time.

1968 Bob Gibson had a 22-9 record, hurled 13 shutouts, had a 15-game winning streak and allowed only 38 earned runs in 304 innings for an ERA of 1.12, a major league record for a pitcher who worked more than 300 innings. He set a World Series strikeout record with 17 in the first game against Detroit. His remarkable season earned him the National League's Cy Young Award and he was also named MVP.

1969 On Sept. 15, Steve Carlton struck out 19 New York Mets in a nine-inning game to set a major league record. He lost the game, 4-3, as Ron Swoboda hit a pair of two-run homers. He struck out at least one man in every inning and fanned the side in four different innings. His record was tied in 1970 by New York's Tom Seaver.

1970 Gibson had a 23-7 record and received his second National League Cy Young Award.

1971 Torre wins batting title with .363 average and is named MVP. Gibson pitches his first no-hitter, beating the Pirates, 11-0, on Aug. 14. Schoendienst establishes longevity record for Cardinal managers, completing his seventh season. Brock became first major league player to steal 50 or more bases in seven consecutive years.

1972 Gibson extends his major league record for most season 200 or more strikeouts to nine. Gibson sets National League record with his 2,786th strikeout, the most lifetime for a righthanded pitcher. Brock extends his record for most consecutive season, 50 or more stolen bases to 8. Cardinals draw 50,000,000th fan since 1900.

1973 Brock steals his 600th base and moves into 9th place on the all-time list. Brock sets major league record for stealing 50 or more bases for 9 consecutive years. Gibson moves into second place on all-time strikeout list. Torre gets his 2000th hit and 1000th RBI.

1974 Brock steals 118 bases to break Maury Wills' one-season mark and Max Carey's National League career record. Lou moves from ninth to second on major league's all-time career stolen base list. Bob Gibson strikes out the 3,000th batter of his career to become only the second pitcher in baseball history to reach that figure. The Cardinals draw more than 1,800,000, the third highest home attendance in their history. Red Birds and Mets play 25 inning game, the longest night game in major league history and the longest game ever played to conclusion. Cardinals win as Bake McBride scores from first on two errors. McBride named "Rookie Of The Year."

1975 Lou Brock gets 2500th hit and 800th stolen base of his career. Bob Gibson retires after 17-year Cardinal career and 251 victories. Gibby is honored by SRO crowd on Bob Gibson Day. Jacket Day turnout of 50,548 is largest regular season crowd in St. Louis baseball history. Hrabosky compiles 13 wins and 22 saves and is named "Fireman of the Year." Ted Simmons finishes second in league batting race with .332 average.

1976 John Denny wins National League ERA title at age 23, tying youngest righthander to win ERA title in N.L. Lou Brock gets 2700th hit of his career and closes to within 27 of tying Ty Cobb's stolen base record.

1977 Lou Brock breaks Ty Cobb's career stolen base mark with number 893 in San Diego August 29. Garry Templeton becomes youngest M.L. shortstop ever to gather 200 hits in a season. Templeton leads majors with 18 triples, highest number since 1957. Ted Simmons sets club record for home runs by a catcher with 21. Ken Reitz sets new fielding record with N.L. third baseman by committing only 9 errors. Bob Forsch wins 20 games.

1978 Bob Forsch no-hits Phillies 5-0, April 16 at Busch Stadium. Manager, Vern Rapp dismissed April 24. Ken Boyer becomes Cardinal Manager April 29. Ted Simmons sets club season record and career high with 22 homers for a catcher. George Hendrick has 7 RBI's at Atlanta, August 25.

1979 Lou Brock collected his 3000th career hit (single off Dennis Lamp) in the 4th inning against the Cubs on August 13 at Busch Stadium. On September 23, Brock stole his 938th base making him baseball's all-time stolen base leader surpassing William (Sliding Billy) Hamilton. Keith Hernandez wins batting title with .344 average and is co-winner of National League M.V.P. award with Pittsburgh's Willie Stargell. Garry Templeton led N.L. with 211 hits. Templeton also led the league in triples with 19, for the third year in a row, setting a new N.L. record and tying the major league mark. His 19 triples are highest number since 1957. He became the first switch-hitter in major league history to collect 100 hits, both right and left handed, in one season. Garry finished with 100 hits RH and 111 hits LH. Ted Simmons hit a career high 26 home runs, which also set a club record for homers by a catcher.

1980 Ken Reitz sets new fielding record for N.L. third baseman by committing only 8 errors. Dane Iorg has 7 RBI's, August 28 vs. Atlanta. Manager Ken Boyer dismissed June 8. Whitey Herzog becomes Cardinal manager June 9. On August 18, John Claiborne fired as G.M. and Herzog named G.M. on August 29. Red Schoendienst served as interim manager for balance of season. On October 24, Herzog assumed dual role of general manager and field manager.

1981 The Cardinals finished the season with the best winning percentage in the Eastern Division, but missed the playoffs because they finished second in each of the two sections of the schedule caused by the mid-summer players' strike. The Philadelphia Phillies, leaders when the strike began, were voted the first-half championship (however, the Phillies, Cardinals, and Cincinnati Reds voted against it), while Montreal won the second half. In each half, the Cardinals played fewer games than the "winners", and could have tied or won either half with the opportunity to play the same number of games. In the individual field, Bruce Sutter, one of several players obtained in winter trades by Herzog, was the National League's top reliever, winning the Rolaids Relief Man award.

1982 In order to concentrate more on his managing duties, Whitey Herzog stepped down as General Manager on Opening Day, turning the reins over to Joe McDonald. The move paid off as the Cardinals were out of first place for only 48 days of the season and claimed their first ever National League East Championship. A 3-0 sweep of the Atlanta Braves put the Cards in their 13th World Series against the Milwaukee Brewers who fell 4-3 to St. Louis in the 'Fall Classic.' The 1982 team was characterized by an aggressive running style of baseball; seven players stole bases in the double figures, led by team catalyst Lonnie Smith who swiped 68. The team hit only 67 home runs, the fewest in the major leagues. Strong and consistent pitching performances were the rule; prior to clinching the title the Cardinals never lost more than three games in a row. Bruce Sutter had a hand in almost half of the team's victories.

DANNY BRADFORD COX (34)

Pitcher Ht: 6-4 Wt: 230
Bats: Right Throws: Right
Age: 23 Born: 9-21-59 at Northhampton, England

Became Cardinal – Signed by Cardinals as the 12th selection in the regular phase of the June, 1981, free agent draft.

1983 – Danny Cox began the season at St. Louis' extended spring training but moved up quickly and made short stops at the A, AA, and AAA levels this year before being called up to St. Louis on August 4 (after the Cardinals sold John Martin to Detroit) ...While at Arkansas, Cox had a string of seven complete games in a row, struck out 73 while yielding only 60 hits in 86.1 innings and walked only 21 batters...Cox started only two games at the AAA level in Louisville...He joined the Cardinals at Cooperstown on August 1 where he started and won a 4-1 decision over the Baltimore Orioles in the Hall of Fame Game...Cox returned to Louisville after that game but was called up four days later.

ANDREW J. VAN SLYKE (18)

Outfielder Ht: 6-1 Wt: 190
Bats: Left Throws: Right
Age: 22 Born: 12-21-60 at Utica, New York

Became Cardinal – Selected by Cardinals in first round of the regular phase of the June, 1979, free agent draft. Signed by scouts Roland Johnson and Bart Shelly.

1983 – A roster player at the Cardinals' 1983 spring training camp, Andy Van Slyke was optioned to Louisville on March 27...While at Louisville he learned to play both third base and first base in addition to his normal outfield position...Van Slyke was called up to St. Louis on June 15 when Mike Ramsey was placed on the 15-day disabled list after suffering from recurring back spasms.

1982 – Had a good year both offensively and defensively in his first year at the AA level. Led the Texas League in triples with 11; and led the Arkansas Travelers with 37 stolen bases...An aggressive hitter with power, he was one of the team's leading hitters, batting .279 with 16 home runs and 70 RBI...He is considered a good defensive centerfielder with an above average arm and rates as one of the Cardinals' brighter prospects in the minor leagues.

Career Highlights – Graduated from New Hartford, N.Y. High School in 1979 where he lettered in football, basketball and baseball. Selected for the New York State Empire Games in basketball, All-State and All-American in baseball his senior year. Injured his hand in final high school game in 1979 and was sidelined for the entire 1979 professional season.

Misc. – Played baseball with the Mayaguez team in Puerto Rican winter league this off-season.

CARDINALS ON RADIO AND TELEVISION

Once again this season, KMOX-Radio (1120 on the dial) will broadcast all Cardinal games at home and on the road.

In addition, KSDK-TV (Channel 5) will televise selected Red Bird road games.

Jack Buck, Mike Shannon and Dan Kelly will handle the accounts of all 162 games on KMOX Radio. Buck, Shannon, Kelly and Jay Randolph sports director of KSDK-TV and radio will handle the telecasts.

A graduate of Ohio State University, Buck broke into the broadcasting business with a couple of nightly sports shows in Columbus, Ohio. He went on to do Ohio State basketball and football and Columbus and Rochester minor league baseball. A native of Holyoke, Mass., Buck handled the first telecast of an American Football League game. He originally joined the Red Bird broadcast team in 1954.

Shannon, a native St. Louisan, starred on the Cardinals' World Champions of 1964 and 1967 and their National League pennant winner of 1968. He spent the 1971 season working in the Cardinal front office as assistant director of promotions and sales. Mike joined the Cardinal broadcast team in 1972.

Kelly, like Buck and Shannon, is a member of the sports staff of KMOX radio in St. Louis. He is the principal play-by-play announcer for St. Louis Blues hockey and for Missouri Tiger football. A graduate of St. Patrick's College in Ottawa, Canada, Kelly worked in radio and television throughout Ontario Province before joining KMOX radio in 1968.

Randolph, a graduate of Salem (W. Va.) College, got his start in broadcasting as sports and promotion director of WHAR in Clarksburg, West Virginia. He went on to work for several West Viriginia radio stations before moving to Dallas in the early 60's. While in Dallas he handled play-by-play of the Dallas Cowboys games. A native of Cumberland, Maryland, Randolph has done a number of NBC Game of the Week productions as well as the Winter Olympics in Sapporo, Japan. He came to St. Louis in 1966.

Randolph will conduct interview shows before and after each television game.

BUSCH STADIUM

Busch Stadium was constructed and officially opened on May 12, 1966 by Civic Center Redevelopment Corporation, a private corporation. Since that time, the stadium has become the focal point of a downtown St. Louis redevelopment effort which has resulted in hundreds of millions of dollars in new office buildings, hotels, parking garages and other facilities.

The area surrounding Busch Stadium on the near South side of downtown St. Louis continues to be a centerpiece of the bustling downtown area. Located immediately adjacent to the stadium is the site of the future home of the National Bowling Hall of Fame and Museum, and within a four-block area three new office buildings are under construction.

Anheuser-Busch, originally the largest single investor in Civic Center Redevelopment Corporation, purchased the remaining shares of stock in 1981 and now operates Busch Stadium and other Civic Center properties.

This year, Anheuser-Busch officially changed the name of the management corporation to Civic Center Corporation. At the same time, Civic Center Corporation was made a wholly owned subsidiary of Anheuser-Busch Companies, Inc.

Known for its commitment to quality, Anheuser-Busch in the last year has given the stadium a new look which not only improved the facility, but added to the total entertainment experience of the fans.

The new look included a new Busch Stadium logo and a new blue, red and white color scheme throughout the stadium.

In addition, other improvements on the stadium are being considered and implemented for 1983, including the installation of a second elevator and a new graphics and signage system.

Since the first event was held in the stadium on May 12, 1966 (when the Cardinals defeated the Atlanta Braves, 4-3, in 12 innings), more than 39 million people have passed through the stadium's turnstiles to view professional baseball, football, soccer, college and high school sporting events, and a variety of other entertainment events.

Busch Stadium has a maximum seating capacity of 60,000 when a portion of the 165,000-square-foot field area is utilized. Permanent seating for baseball is 50,122, and 51,624 for football.

The stadium's basic structure is concrete with the exception of the movable seat sections, which are steel. The nearly circular stadium has an outside diameter of about 800 feet and covers an area of more than 12 acres.

It is essentially a two-deck stadium with approximately half the seats in each deck. Seats completely surround the playing field, with no posts or columns to obscure the spectator's view. Two sections of 3,600 seats each can be moved from a position along the first and third base line to a position parallel to the football field.

The playing field is from 10 to 30 feet lower than the surrounding streets. Spectators move from the entrance level either up or down to the seating area. There are eight major entrances.

BUSCH STADIUM GROUND RULES

OUTFIELD AREA

Fair ball hitting above yellow line in left and right fields – HOME RUN. Ball hitting on or below yellow line is IN PLAY.

Fair ball bounding into field boxes, bleachers or enclosed area in left or right field corners or going through or under fences – TWO BASES.

DUGOUTS

Ball rolling onto top step of dugouts (which are at ground level) is IN PLAY.

Photographers' area on outfield end of each dugout shall be regarded as part of the dugout.

Ball thrown by pitcher from the rubber to catch baserunner off first or third base that goes into stand or dugout – ONE BASE.

A pitch, thrown or batted ball that hits anyone on the playing field except as otherwise provided for in the Official Playing Rules is IN PLAY.

Any batted ball hitting automatic tarpaulin container would be FOUL BALL.

Ball going through wire behind plate or lodging in it –ONE BASE on throw by pitcher – TWO BASES on throw by fielder.

ROSTER ADDITION: The Cardinals acquired right-handed pitcher STEVE BAKER on September 2 from the Oakland A's organization for two minor league players to be named later. The 27 year old BAKER (6' 0", 200 lb.) has a major league record of 7-15 in approximately two years of major league service. He was with Oakland twice this year and also with Tacoma of the Pacific Coast League where he was 4-8 as a starter.

STEVE BAKER — RHP
(Steven Byrne Baker)

1983 Opening Day Age: 26.
Born: Eugene, Oregon, August 30, 1956.
Bats: Right. Throws: Right.
Height: 6-0. Weight: 200.
Major League Service: 1 year, 71 days.
Obtained: Signed to a free agent contract, March 9, 1982.

1982 HIGHLIGHTS: After several mediocre minor league seasons, Baker turned around and put together an extraordinary year . . . he was 13–5 with a 2.48 ERA, struck out 79, walked 68 in 163 innings . . . was selected to the Pacific Coast League All Star team . . . two-thirds of the way through the season, Baker had a 1.37 ERA . . . the all-time PCL record, set in 1914 by Slim Love, was 1.56 . . . In the middle of August, he was 11–5 with a 1.67 ERA . . . then an arm injury (strained ligaments) which he had incurred several months earlier, began to take its toll . . . he dropped four consecutive decisions and saw his ERA bloat to 2.48 . . . prior to his injury, Baker was "untouchable at this level," according to Manager Ed Nottle . . . when he came back from the injury, he concentrated on his mechanics, so as not to aggravate his shoulder problems . . . he was recalled to Oakland on September 6 . . . with the A's he had a 1–1 record with a 4.56 ERA . . . his first appearance was superb . . . in a 7 inning relief stint, vs Toronto he allowed four hits, 1 run (a homer by Jesse Barfield) and walked nobody . . . on September 22 vs Texas he picked up his first Major League victory of the year, a 5–3 decision . . . during the off season he spent time in the Dominican Republic working on new pitches under the tutelage of A's Director of Latin American scouting Juan Marichal.

CAREER: In 1976, with Lakeland (A) he was 5–4 with a 2.51 ERA . . . at Montgomery (AA) in 1977 he was 4–5 with a 4.30 ERA . . . Baker was 8–1 with a 3.22 ERA and 87 strikeouts in half a season with Evansville in 1978 . . . at age 21, he was called up to Detroit . . . he was 2–4 there, with a 4.55 ERA . . . started the year with Detroit in 1979. . . . went 1–7 with a 6.64 ERA . . . was sent back down to Evansville mid-way through the '79 season . . . was 0–2 with a 7.71 ERA with Evansville . . . 1980, he was 1–3 with Evansville before being traded to Toronto . . . with Syracuse (Toronto's AAA affiliate), he was 6–5 with a 3.20 ERA . . . pitched the entire season with Syracuse in 1981, going 8–14 with a 4.50 ERA.

PERSONAL/MISCELLANEOUS: Lettered in baseball, football and basketball at Monte Vista (Spring Valley, California) High . . . signed as an undrafted free agent out of Grossmont (El Cajon, California) Junior College . . . Enjoys fishing, water and snow skiing . . . his parents own the Eugene Register-Guard, daily newspaper in Eugene, Oregon . . . Baker was American Association manager's pick as the "best prospect and pitcher with the best curve" for 1978 . . . single . . . resides in Eugene, Oregon.
